1. This Agreement is for viewing electronic court records as authorized pursuant to Florida Supreme Court Administrative Order 19-20 as amended:
☒ A Registered User (not a party to a case and not an attorney of record)
☐ A party to a case (includes Registered User viewing)
☐ An officer, owner or employee of a business entity named as a party with authority to view such court records (includes Registered User viewing)
☐ An attorney of record (includes Registered User viewing)
☐ Self-Represented Litigant (Pro Se) (includes Registered User viewing)
2. Registered User affirms the contact and other information on the Request Form above is currently correct.
3. Clerk Responsibilities
 - a. The Clerk will endeavor to provide uninterrupted access to the site, except the site may be down for maintenance, for network or power failures, or to address security issues.
 - b. The Clerk will notify the Registered User upon approval of a unique verification code, with directions on how to establish a unique ID & Password. Consult the site FAQs or contact the Clerk's office at 813-307-7180 for help with your registration.
 - c. The Clerk will maintain and modify the site as required by AOSC 19-20, as amended.
4. Registered User Responsibilities
 - a. To insure that only Registered User has knowledge of the assigned login ID and password.
 - b. To prohibit any person or entity other than the Registered User from accessing the site.
 - c. To immediately notify the clerk if Registered User discovers that the assigned password is known by another person (whether used or not), so that the existing login ID and password may be deactivated and replacement login information issued.
 - d. To provide updated contact information or, for parties, updated case information by submitting a new Request Form, which is incorporated by reference.
 - e. To acknowledge that a gap may exist between the time that paper or electronic documents are filed with the Clerk and when they become available on this site.
 - f. To the extent the Registered User accesses and views confidential information in the electronic court record, the Registered User shall take all steps necessary to prevent public access to the confidential information.
 - g. To not use or permit others to use the information obtained from this site for commercial or resale purposes and that all activity on this site will be tracked and monitored by the clerk to enforce this provision.
 - h. To provide compatible computer hardware and software and/or make modifications to existing hardware and software to access the site at no cost to the Clerk.
5. Limitations of Liability
 - a. Registered User releases Clerk and Clerk's employees and agents from any liability and any damages resulting from or related to (a) interrupted service of any kind; (b) Registered User's equipment; (c) use of, or viewing of, electronic court records, (d) Registered User's unauthorized public disclosure of confidential information accessed as provided in this Agreement.

- b. Nothing in this Agreement may be construed as waiving the sovereign immunity of the Clerk or the Clerk's employees and agents or of the Registered User's sovereign immunity, if applicable, or modifying the recovery limits against the Clerk or Registered User as set forth in section 768.28(5), Florida Statutes.
6. This Agreement, regardless of where actually accepted or delivered, is deemed to have been accepted and delivered by the parties in the State of Florida and any dispute arising from it will be governed by Florida law. Any suit for any claim, breach, or dispute arising out of this Agreement will be maintained in Hillsborough County, Florida.
7. Any notice or communication given or sent pursuant to this Agreement may be delivered in person, by mail, or by email to the address provided on the Request Form.
8. Termination and Other Remedies
- If Registered User breaches the provisions in this Agreement, the Clerk has the right to immediately terminate all rights granted to Registered User under this Agreement.
 - This Agreement will be terminated by the Clerk immediately if the funding to support the operative provisions of the Agreement is withdrawn for any reason. Registered User acknowledges that the Clerk has no control over appropriations that may be provided by any governmental entity for the continuation of the services under this Agreement.
9. If any part of this Agreement is found to be invalid, then it will have no effect, but the remaining provisions will continue in full force and effect.
