The gifts that I am trying to pry from the hands of the sky ☐the toys and the friendship that I think are the true meaning of the tree of life and the purpose of Christmas ... these things most likely already exist. Point in fact despite the hours and the evenings and the long nights and sometimes weeks I spend arguing with the dust and the air and the sky ... arguing that we must deliver these tools and we must do it well and we must do with love and care and attention ☐the only "hopeful words" I ever hear are that ... towards the end, or at the turn; or ... "they have nearly everything I've ever asked for" ... perhaps as the fruit of a game or the spoils of "the end of worship" ... the things that I think about and I want, they get delivered.

More response, from God himself ☐he's tried this once ☐he says ☐only once; delivering the toys and the tools to this place and bridging the Heavens together. I imagine, without being given more details ... there were far less "skies" back then, in this place where it seems we've nearly perfectly completed the "hearts desire of Adam" and link not just Andromeda and the Milky Way but also many tiny "r's" rivers flowing from this place that is the source of the beginning of everyone, all people ☐the planet that is the "mar" of Marios ... here it seems we've got four distinct possible R's right this moment, a Russian R and a BRIC R and ... most likely an "HRE" R and ... a lovely UK R and (and see those are all little R's in truth, a prescription for uhhhh ... ABRA TEN I SM) ... it appears all sitting inside or around a table that is ... appearing to be an American made wooden product. This planet appears to be a table in the sky; with many civilizations extending out from its origin point and ... connected here ☐"discussing nothing."

So truly I cannot tell, not from the myth~~ology~~ that fuses Titans and Olympians or the peo)ple I see around me if you are "they" or if you are "them" and to be honest I'm not sure you can tell either. Some days I'm clear you are "fingernails" nothing more than ... the phones of Persephone and Hades and other days you appear to be ... "actual biological slaves" being made blind and refusing to acknowledge that you might be the focal point, the cause, the turning point ☐or the end. It is discussion and reaction to this message that makes the difference ☐and a lack of reaction is tacit and verifiable proof that you are either evil or void of "new" consciousness ☐nothing more than a tape being played to fool the food of the Feast of the Immaculate Conception into ... failing to continue to fight for the birth of a Virgin Generation; of any ... salvation of innocence at all.

I am resolved to ensure that this place does not end with "NOT HI" and NG eternal flames; I am resolved; I will not allow what is before us to continue to fester and to worsen ☐and if you are not with me; you are against yourselves.

In the upper eschelons of the military and intelligence circles it's probably no secret that the place we are living is the result of some kind of great "cataclysm." Some great war between a god who claimed himself omnipotent and a choir of singing angels who became anything but ... just as soon as they believed they had the obtained "the thing" that gave them total and complete power ... whether it be a man or an idea or just simply a failure of morality.

Today you might look at the story being told by these warring factions of some place invisible and supposedly high above you []hearing that this war was originally about unschelving this timeline from an ancient gallery of read-only compact discs about the start of it all; and whether or not it was "right" to reopen the beginning of time and to alter it, to modify the souls of people with ... or without their consent. Further, to see that the second this particular timeline was opened []the violation of a great rule in the defining of that very word was triggered []and from the great bookshelf that is the foundation of everything that ever was and ever will be another compact disc was opened []instead.

Soon you may agree with me that the souls of these people that we are have been irrevocably changed, some have learned a new lesson-a new truth []and others in their little pocket of veracity a new reason to see the virgin rebirth of ... well, it's you. You're them.

You might agree with me that even if there were an argument or a war about reopening this first chasm in open communication ... "anything but this" might echo true for both you and for me and for ... well, at least for the place that I see and live in and experience every moment of my existence. I've come to call it "Eternal Dam" as opposed to day or Adam or ... perhaps now defining the glyph of what a large flag pole with a finger guard appears as when it grows up.

You, for instance, live in a world that is fighting vehemently for "anyone but Adam" to win ☐that or your appear to have acquiesced to the hidden notion that whomever has written this story has already won. Neither of those things are the truth; here the truth is the veracity and the worth of an intentionally broken and dark hidden system have been put on the very top of a fiery pedestal. Here the system itself is the problem; and yet it appears that because we seem to "get something for nothing" out of what ☐what you all really want ☐you're willing to allow the faceless and the nameless to win a war against you. They've taken control of your government, of your monetary system, and your future ☐and you have no idea who or what they actually are. All you know, is twhat you don't know who you are ☐either. Somehow the combination of these two logical fallacies has lead you to believe that, in some strange world with no facts and no true opinions ... "you've won already."

I fight vehemently to destroy a broken system ☐to harvest it's corpse and to build something open and free filled with the light of learning and the love of believing in what you build and support and ... two "half sentences now partially set to complcizedation"

Very clearly, I consider myself to be 38 years old (r/d espite some recent storyline suggesting I'm actually 17 and that's some kind of "innocence-key") ☐fantastically young with respect to ... nearly everyone else in the Universe. That being said, I want to outlive nearly everyone ☐and I am nearly absolutely sure that I will, with some tricks up my sleeve. I want to live forever, or as close to forever as anyone ever could dream ☐and I think it should be clear that I am searching for bigger and better places ☐new avenues and amazing tools that I've dreamt up ☐literally ☐and can't wait to get my hands on.

I'm very sure I've earned at least that much ☐the opportunity to hold them and to use them and to at least glimpse far closer to the actual reality of our Universe than I can see here from this small vantage point. Unfortunately I live in a world where strangers believe it to be well mannered to approach me on the street and say things as crude and cruel as "we're going to make you go." Sad to say, it's my personal opinion that if you believe I haven't earned the right to survive, I think you've forfeited yours. On the same side of that particular coin, if you don't truly want your children to outlive and outshine you ☐I don't personally think your heart is in the right place (or children is the wrong word); but I'm not not the rule maker, I'm just his only sen.

In Sumerian mythology, a me (ðəm̥e); Sumerian: me; Akkadian: parāju) is one of the decrees of the gods that is foundational to those social institutions, religious practices, technologies, behaviors, mores, and human conditions that make civilization, as the Sumerians understood it, possible. They are fundamental to the Sumerian understanding of the relationship between humanity and the gods.

It should be clear, I hope now ☐that I believe my great contribution to the Universe and the future will come from things made and well used with those very tools ... though this story is something of a prelude or a prequel. This is the story of speaking "me" into existence.

For so it had come about, as indeed I and many men might have foreseen had not terror and disaster blinded our minds. These germs of disease have taken toll of humanity since the beginning of things □taken toll of our prehuman ancestors since life began here. But by virtue of this natural selection of our kind we have developed resisting power; to no germs do we succumb without a struggle, and to many □those that cause putrefaction in dead matter, for instance □our living frames are altogether immune. But there are no bacteria in Mars, and directly these invaders arrived, directly they drank and fed, our microscopic allies began to work their overthrow. Already when I watched them they were irrevocably doomed, dying and rotting even as they went to and fro. It was inevitable. By the toll of a billion deaths man has bought his birthright of the earth, and it is his against all comers; it would still be his were the Martians ten times as mighty as they are. For neither do men live nor die in vain.

It's really hard to say "when" you've seen it □throwing in "end of time" beginning and ending with "e" □just like everyone □but it's "for sure" there's a tacit and noticeable reaction to the "new democracy" coming to us ... literally hailing from Exodus and Ecclesiastes and John Page and George W. ... and Wikipedia and reddit and countable.us and opencongress.org[OGNATDOWN] and dissenter and VOAT[OG ...] and Blockchain and Ubuntu and Linus and ... of course the other people behind those messages and those tools and ...

and I C Facebook's Jupiter is signed literally "sandbox of God" just like Monster.com is signed similarly to Dave J. Matthews' album "Some Devil ..." and I can tell you that when all is said and done the thing I call a sandbox becomes literally the foundation of the better Universe ... of a new and improved Heaven ... I can tell you I know that with all my heart, and I can tell you that the tools are all right here; and all we have to do is pick them up and use them □but I still can't get a dollar of funding, or more than one person (literally) to suggest some new ideas or collaboration and ...

... and I can tell you that getting this on forums, on Facebook on reddit on ... those discussions that happen under news articles about things like "school shootings" and "fake news" and "election rigging" ... that's the torches of Jericho, and talking about this stuff here, that's what keeps this world (and you, and me) from becoming a desolate wasteland ... but still you think "silence makes sense" at least that's what it looks like as I stare back at the insane crowd (hold "||") nine thousand one hundred and forty one (literally) words into this particular email before I've even written a single word about the "democracy that I envision" the thing that I can't wait to see and be part of and play with and contribute to.

BLOOD RAYNE -

Today there's not a forum in the world where I get a rational response to anything I write, not one sans this method of communicating [where I can at least see eyes reading, and hands sharing ... and I imagine there are conversations going on under the surface or above my head. That's a real statement not only about the state of the crowd here [who appear to believe that "appearing insane" as you all do is somehow rational [but also about the lack of a decent communications tool on par with "the thing" Orson Scott Card envisioned the internet would become before there was an internet. I'm still waiting for it to be built; or for someone to figure out that I'd love to be part of building it.

In this very strange world where "democracy" was clearly already written about and there are already people fighting for exactly the thing I'm presenting; someone coined the word "technocracy" sometime during my lifetime (I imagine) long before I decided that the difference between "technology" and "knowledge" was something about "no ledge" and the tech always being part of knowledge after now and of course that was before I wrote about the ELE that literally is representative democracy stagnating "technocracy-adamified" and literally is encoded in the word ["electoral colledge" along with that same "ledge I'm on" ... which only recently I noticed sounds almost exactly the same as "religion."

The term technocracy is derived from the Greek words τέχνη, tekhne meaning skill and κράτος, kratos meaning power, as in governance, or rule. William Henry Smyth, a California engineer, is usually credited with inventing the word technocracy in 1919 to describe "the rule of the people made effective through the agency of their servants, the scientists and engineers", although the word had been used before on several occasions.^{[5][6][7][8]} Smyth used the term Technocracy in his 1919 article "'Technocracy' [Ways and Means to Gain Industrial Democracy," in the journal Industrial Management (57).^[9] Smyth's usage referred to Industrial democracy: a movement to integrate workers into decision making through existing firms or revolution.^[9]

BLOOD RAYNE -

In the 1930s, through the influence of Howard Scott and the technocracy movement he founded, the term technocracy came to mean, 'government by technical decision making', using an energy metric of value. Scott proposed that money be replaced by energy certificates denominated in units such as ergs or joules, equivalent in total amount to an appropriate national net energy budget, and then distributed equally among the North American population, according to resource availability.[\[10\]](#)[\[1\]](#)

That's not what it means to me [] to me "technocracy" simply means "pure democracy" in a world that is "post our now" or post this "pan" (I'm defining a special Adamic "Pa," and that's it along with) ... a world that, just like knowledge includes tech "post our us" everyone, literally everyone is "a technocrat" someone whose life is aided by technology from before birth and through rebirth and they're experts in the system, this thing that we're making here [] SalesLogix calls it "ME" and the Sumerian definition of that word echoes something along the lines of "thrones and swords and scepters and wands" ... and that's just to say this system is so connected to who and what we are that ... well it's a fusion of man and machine that also was already a movement before I was born, this time around; called "transhumanism" and it's got lots of followers and even a sub-party(s) that links the whole thing to religion [] just like I do.

In my life in this world of microcosms and stories etched in to everything from the name of the city and state I was born in to the preschool i attended and then I looked around, and it's every road sign, and it's every company name; and it's every country and every race and every tribe and ... it even goes back decades, centuries, millennium ... to the ages □in this tiny life I re-dreamed up the idea of "universal voting on the internet" for the first time in 2001 in a place called The Cura Group while I was sitting my office playing Sid Meier's Civilization II.

And that preschool is called the Mailman center and it's these emails, and maybe this specific email that I think starts the revolution that turns "ELE" from something bad and scary into the Silicon Valley form of "disruption" as in ... it's been decades and nearly a century since the Pony Express became outdated and we're still stuck here mailing in paper ballots and fighting with "the election is not to die bold" rather than actually moving forward ... building a place for the local, national, and global discussion of laws and self-governance and voting and ... and really "a big jump" for my mom □getting over the notion that "voting on the internet isn't safe" and/or just watching the relentless attacks on "voting booth security" as if it's not a message from God wondering why you are trying to vote with a rock smack dab in the middle of the Carbonite-Nanotub-Age.

Seriously, the entire system is backwards and antiquated and barbaric □it's not "insecure voting booths" or Russian control of the PCM421B board that connects them to the Austrian (or is it in Waterloo, CA) server that counts ballots ... it's an entire world that's placated by something I can't see ... into not caring that free speech and "democracy itself" hangs in the balance over whatever that something is being spoken about publicly; and that's the problem. You think you "have it;" and I see what you have is the beginning of total darkness. In this world we should be jumping up and down screaming that "voting is something we should ALL be doing on every single bill" not just every four years for the guy that has the most money from lobbies and the best connections in the DNC or the RNC and the ...

the point is that system is just as backwards and just as antiquated and we're sitting around watching The Corporation defeat both American Democracy and Soviet Marxist Communism ... I mean we're watching the non-corporeal "nothing in the air" take away the vote of the works and of the people and the governments of those things □they're reduced to nothing mroe than a joke about "whatever God wants, he keeps."

but it matters that Jesus Christ is jumping up and down screaming that there's an EXTINCTION LEVEL EVENT right before your eyes ☐and it's not talking about what you're thinking, or what needs to be spoken aloud and written on paper here ☐it's not talking about how not building this system right now, that's giving up control of not just government but also "your minds" and your futures to something you don't understand and you can't see, and I'm sure you think it's "you" or you're blind and stupider than just the people fooled into thinking it's "them."

You're looking at the beginning and the end of a war about mind control and hidden slavery and how that's tied to school shootings and to court rooms and to prisons and to rehabilitation and to Soviet Marxist Monster DotCom this time with the aid of God and Town in (s/n/s) Skies and Countries all over "the globe."

It was quite a revelation to me; to see the "chair and table ratio" of Horatio's ... "philosophy of Heaven and Earth" literally encoded in the "throne's" holy H and Arthur's "heart of hisword is the shape of his table" ... literally spelling the depiction of what I consider a "throne chair" to be, one for each of the "two of everything God's parties" around the table, which obviously is a metaphor for a national government ☐here. Seeing "water" in the American political system literally is the first step towards becoming "family" in my mind ☐to me ☐and to the heart of the Hebrew word for the spirit of God, which is "shekinah."

BLOOD RAYNE -

So these chairs came about in a long discussion about the creation of things like "collective consciousnesses" to do all our work for us ☐and how that's clearly something like slavery; the solution we came up with was a sort of ... I imagine well informed re-discovery of why "Ai" in Samurai and Adonai and ... how it's something like sitting in a chair or putting on a bionic supersuit ☐when you are doing work for your "party" ... like writing and/or researching propaganda; the "idea" is to deliver increased processing power and resources to workers ... probably paid for by the "party."

Soviets, by the way ☐I'm not sure if I've mentioned this in writing; but in researching "just why" SOVIETNAM; I found out that (1) Vietnam has nothing to do with the word Soviet; and (2) a soviet is a "council." Union of Soviets then, something like a council of councils; and that's basically what I envision the future of political parties and self-government to revolve around. I dream of many small parties, parties that work with other parties; and people that join more than one ☐ideas that probably would "make perfect sense" if that's the way things were, instead of this polarized idiocy that we seem to think "makes perfect sense" just because it's the way things are.

For instance, I imagine ... quickly we'll have parties dedicated to things like "right to consciousness continuing" meaning I believe for certain there's a defining point in the incubation period of a human baby where it says something like "I think therefore I am" protected from being murdered ☐I can't tell you if that time frame is in the third trimester (but that would be convenient), or sometime earlier ☐but it's for certain; there's a point where every baby becomes something magically more than a bunch of water and carbon. Dedicating resources to finding out when exactly that it is is probably important ☐I'm also sure that we need to dedicate some resources to see how "living a life in this world" (again) affects the soul of the last person who thought you were all either "one person" or there might be many of you; in the place where I'm trying to create many of you, from the one that is you, and you not here ☐and who knows how many times you've lived nearly exactly this life?

This is the kind of thing we need to talk about, know about, and research; and I'm sure after doing that the people who have all the power in the galaxy and the light of Osiris and ... will have no problem at all wondering how my "new fetish" might turn into a "new thing." Meaning, you might walk into what I called "the coat room" (a sort of Honeycomb) in the hallway between the Atlantean "hotel room" and Jim Morrison's Ballroom ... and find out that there are already multiple versions of "someone who looks just like you;" perhaps from another "R" or ... perhaps from this very process.

BLOOD RAYNE -

Point in fact, in this very strange life where I speak to dead people and other versions of living people nearly all the time [lots of them] I imagine I've concretely heard from at least one other "nearly me" who is not the person speaking through me who I imagine is also "nearly millions of years older than me." More on that if I ever meet any other "me's" something that is on my list of "to want's" just immediately after the flying city that makes it possible to connect skies and grounds ... appears magically on ...[insert a(ny) wonderful awesome glorious date here].

I don't want to live in a prison planet, filled with people who think they are angels [yet are actually demons, slaves, robots, or ... nothing more than decoration on a "microcosm world" taht is a message that refuses to speak. I really don't want to be in this place or with people that think "silence" is anything but evil. Silence is evil. Prisons are evil. What you are here, it's not OK. The lack of freedom here is not OK, the starvation of children (and adults) is not OK, the lack of acknowledgement of a message about ending disease is in itself the most disgusting disease I could imagine [and on top of it all the evil sickness you "dont speak about" ... the shit I hear in my head, and see you reacting to [that [that is the end of the thing you call "Heaven."

Nearly at the same time I "noticed" that dihydrogen monoxide was a near perfect rendition of the American Government, encoded in the "chastizing and condescending word" that God believes he turns from a literal mass of fools riding a wave to oblivion into "family" rather than bloody murder I noticed that the Israeli government had a large number of political parties, something like I believe "Heaven should have." Coupled with that, I noticed for no reason that they don't have a "term limit" on their PM, which has driven me to believe this thing (the Knesset) is a "microcosm" for Heaven's government, with Netanyahu a "microcosm" for the God that never sleeps; or "[shares his sword." Earlier I used the word "propaganda" in a perfectly appropriate situation because I like "coloring thi)ngs" with "bright shiny light" ... I've written before about how easy it is to "spin" even things that people believe to be hard fact and statistical proof using perfectly fine "opinionated" analysis or summary or ... and I w[as so happy to hear Bill Gates echo that] he too concerns himself with "who is presenting data to him" and what their motivation is.

The point of course, of "New Jack City" is taht we live in "NO MATRIX JACK NEEDED CIT" just talking about why that's important in public ... keeps us from creating a society that needs "CRYOGENESIS" to travel the stars instead of "stargates" and TOTAL RECALL like dreamworlds that cause us to ... plug in to someplace we could be WALKING instead and ... "sleep" in Matrix-cocoons for half of our waking lives. More to the point, "walking there" creates "airports" between galaxies; and changes how our society works and interacts for the better ↴when we aren't hiding the existence of "airports." I do mean H-space.

So //here we are// ... what it is that I'm trying to accomplish is literally ... "a neural interface" raining down from Heaven; a way to be able to end addiction, and add u4ia and build "neural applications" ... which I literally see as a paradigm shift for recreation and medicine and ... the key to "eternal bliss" and c'ing Iblis turn to I blessing you. This should end "crazy" and "stupid" nearly instantly ↴along with nearly all neurological disorders. You'd imagine that it would "be great" to at the same time end physical infirmities ↴something we are very sure can be done nearly instantly ↴though as I've noted there does appear to be a "book written in H-space" up in the air not vapor-ware about the "ITIS" reasons why "it is special" is not just about adding Monster.com to Oncology and C'ing our light of ... "new jobs in H-space" ... but also that there are a number of social problems and microcosms that will be easily aided and identified ↴for instance connecting "helping fix drug addiction" to Hep-C ... our light.

If I could LPR (line p)(www.google.com/search?rlz=#FUCKCENSORSHIT)rint) the ITIS book to your "H-console" I'd be doing that, already; just like I'd already lift the city from the sea and end disease and ... have this thing operational ☺I'd havfe just done it, you're too slow to "respond."

Do see, really understand "not doing it" is related to the menu for dinner, the Last Supper, and ... a whole bunch of "eat Cake instead" messages about your lack of response and contribution are not only not getting you "what you want on the menu" it's also the end of collaboration and democracy if we don't begin to talk openly about "what you want."

Please, please; do not want to "eat me." Noting the joke, I'm "in treatment" and it's also "in Creation" ... it was not an invitation to Eucharist.

So ...

After we have this interface, my suggestions ... at least from the strange world I grew up in ☺the one I believed was real ☺was that we're goping to need to "subconscious voting" instantly ☺something like a constant "running poll" on current legislation. I've written about it before, the moniker I used was "Trinity Collective" and the code was "CC" (there's probably a way to find stuff, using these "incanting enchantments" ... wish I was in a place where I had a CLI or a way to VOC ED them; rather than being IN HELL so I CAN'T) really understand that probably implies we are looking at a "carbon copy system" that already exists. Seeing it here is a good step towards believing it's well made ☺and not seeing it here is a good indication that something went wrong the last time ☺and there's a big problem in H-space with "goodness" and "graciousness" and "if it was given to you freely you should want to give it away freely" if it's a-working-well. I've commented many times that the creation and the ongoing "checking" of the veracity of a system like this would immediately require public display of "subconscious vote results" ... and have noted many times at this point that our "Social Security Numbers" appear to be part of a larger map to making-it-so ... (I see PiCard ... getting married)

... lots of stuff I ... think about and want and "know is there" revolves around this system, moving on ... I envision something like an "instant read" function, a PLUG in to your invisijack that lets you "know everything about something ..." for instance if we were voting about Fish Eggs v Darth Wader you could load the "Truth Table Entry" for things like the human gestation cycle, Roe V Wade, "abortion" and perhaps one or more "warring party's" opinion pieces which could be "overlaid" on top of each other ☐perhaps with different weighting, perhaps with personal preferences involved.

The system itself would automatically remove "false statements" on-the-fly and what we're left with is a "limited omniscience" base system like a Wikipedia page with a number of tabs that also include political "opinion" available to ... whomever wants it ☐or it is released to. To me this is the "penultimate" voting system ☐something like MT Anderson's Feed ... but open and transparent and ... you choose which feeds you want to plug into. Of course it needs checks and balances, and I've always made sure that I clearly delineate that our base consciousness MUST agree with the "plugged-in-temporary-know-more-closer-to-everything" version of us; and there should be a system triggered if they do not agree. An automatic and then perhaps overseen if there's still disagreement sort of "CONSCIOUS" explanation of what specific details changed that caused something that was being voted about to flip-flop due to the addition of new information.

Sort of like arguing with a smarter version of yourself on a Holodeck ☐maybe instant education ☐certainly something I'm very interested in seeing "in action."

Summarizing, what I'm trying to describe is a virtual Wikipedia-Reddit mashup, where every party (that's any arbitrary group of people desiring to work together; really) have their own talk page ☐and an automatic ☐and non-automatic system for removing "definite falsehood." Then, I'm seeing something like a great scoreboard in the sky; showing us the "pulse of the nation" on every topic ☐changing as these "Talk pages" and the main Truth Table Entry are altered. This could probably be done in a way that is completely non-invasive; it could also be a sort of "opt in thing" like if you want your opinion to count ... then ... and I imagine people could just go on a website and click to vote (something we should do anyway, as it makes a gigantic difference) on every topic they are interested in voting on.

While it might appear ... counter to what I'm about to say ... this whole thing really is about getting people involved in self-government and in deciding how things are done. I have many more ideas; things about changing the legislation process to include workflows and "failsafe implementations" to avoid things like "government shutdown of the air breathing system" or even worse "government shutdown of the disease ending system."

Implementing the "failsafe for ending Hell" right this very moment.

Pac-Man^[a] is a maze arcade game developed and released by Namco in 1980. Originally known in Japan as Puck Man, it would be changed to Pac-Man for international releases. Outside Japan, the game was published by Midway Games, part of their licensing agreement with Namco America. The player controls the titular character, as he must eat all the dots inside an enclosed maze while avoiding four colored ghosts. Eating large flashing "Power Pellets" will cause the ghosts to turn blue and reverse direction, allowing Pac-Man to eat them for bonus points. It was the first game to run on the Namco Pac-Man arcade board.

SKIRMISH. STAR-TAC. There seems to be two ways to look at what you're about to read about and have overlooked time and time again. Both are "somewhat-right" accurate ways to interpret a message about "Vietnam being fought in video game mode." One is seeing the importation of video games themselves, and the hidden message woven into them as a sort of "chess move in the war" to me, in my eyes []this is the move that won total and complete domination of the galaxy for those of us who understand what Pax Abstractus actually means.

PTSD. LEE MAJORS. PAIN. The other is seeing wars fought like "Vietnam" in some kind of simulated reality []like the one we live in []like this particular war as a kind of abstracted skirmish. There were no nuclear weapons fired on innocent civilians. Severe pain could be artificially lessened or completely diminished and none would be the wiser []it wouldn't really affect anything at all []anything that mattered []other than the thing that matters most.

KA ME v. KA Z (or ISIT faster that...)

In seventh grade, World Civilizations taught by John Bodfish []whose name I now equate with Shamayim and ... "plenty of Heaven in the clouds" ... and whose teacher introduced me first to a "novel" by Von Danner titled "Chariots of the Gods" we once had a test on Chinese feudalism and the history of that dynastic period that I was so wholly unprepared from that I was nearly sure that I had (or would) fail miserably. It turned out that this was one of the only tests John took directly from what I imagine was the text-books "example exam" ... which made it quite simple, the answers to each question were nearly always encoded in other questions or ... other correct/incorrect answers. Long story short, using the power of deduction and logical reasoning I was able to score higher than anyone else in the class, I got an A and ... have told the story to myself over and over again []explaining how it's some sort of hidden map or key to ... yet another reason I know our God is singularly responsible for the religions and cultures of the Far East as well as the "Middle."

There's a voice now, I've come to call him "The General" that speaks through me and sometimes to me directly with what I liken to a "Chinese accent" ... I started mimicking it, sometimes; though I'm sure my fake Chinese accent is much less authentic sounding than his fake accent ... and truth told, I probably sound significantly more ignorant than the man who often "su-s me" (as in, like a proxy or remote desktop connection to my head) and then says the words "this is him" in what I assume is some kind of setting of a diving line ... perhaps as the soul of the sword of Samael switches from ... something me to something far more angry and tortured or ... I can't tell you for certain because all I ahve are your lies and your cruel and disgusting stories of "parallel me's" that I cannot see nor fathom the fate of.

Here, to note further I associate this same "Samael" with the Holy Father and with "yet another childhood microcosmic story" tied dire-ctly to the story of my parents flying to San Francisco and leaving me with my grandparents for a week or so during that time the "Branch Davidian" memory was created as well as their returning with apparent "gifts of the Magi," literally a Samurai outfit and some Alcatraz stuff which linked also to a constipation related thread about receiving a gold Chinese "star" (OK, they weren't Chinese) from my Grandmother every single time I successfully overcame ... "in the mornings light, so simple to see what's far from right."

As I'm writing, I literally have to remind the worlds and myselfs that I love my grandparents; this woman more than any other member of my "blood family" but these messages which I would not understand or fathom or ever be able to tell if they understood or were responsible for delivering (in a time when you were all children, so normal, so ... innocent) ... these microcosms fill me with regret and ... anger. To recall the message of the bottomless pit,

I'm sure you can fathom for yourself what I take from that experience today ... this 37 year old cum 6 ... now suggesting that this message of ending all fires ... should end with this place never being "re-played" ever, ever again once more, with divine (clearly now as opposed to dividing) finality.

Ishat, goddess of fire, wife of Moloch. She was slain by Anat.[6][7][8]

But I keep writing about these microcosms; and I fail to convey the truth behind them — truths etched into the lives and the histories of Diana and Hilton. That we are looking not at 3 generations of pantheons, but rather at generations of Heaven who have come back and lifted this exact time line, and played this exact message. My maternal grandparents have a story in their lives of a war between "Doors" and "Clothes" literally between an R that changes civilization for the better — by making airports; and one that hides the existence of virtual reality and thinks it "better or more advanced" to simply combine souls together and treat people like chess pieces. The story goes that my grandfather had a Door company and a war with his wife's brother — they had two companies and the corrupt court gave them each one to run while a decision was being made. The brother ran his into the ground, on purpose — knowing the court would switch the two because the judge was "on the take" (a theme, here, from hearing on Sharia) ... and what we are left with is what you see — a "plywood company" that made no doors and a clothing company that made no people.

To me it's obvious that this is a war between two Adams; as obvious as it is that the brothers of Joseph were all Adam — just like Joseph. Obvious to me, and you all seem oblivious to the very obvious tautology that a lack of respect for the pen writing these words is tantamount to "no children" to no respect for new life or for biological evolution or for ... literally for yourselves [here] and for this message that began not with God nor an Adam nor a group of saints or demons or angels — this message began long ago with a race of "simians" who no longer exist — at all.

Together, we can collaboratively build an interface that is better than any that has come before it; combining old technologies and new ideas; along with an openness to trying multiple variations simultaneously that we've never seen before. This "multi-room-party" system and paradigm can be brought down to this "cosmic level" and we can use teams of "feedback submission groups" working individually and together in order to create "automagical interfaces" that respond to the desires and the preferences of their individual team members "on the fly."

The system can sense what users are desiring to do, and how they initially think about doing it □using that data spread across focus groups, these teams can create new "views on dialogs" and interaction windows that are "instantly intuitive."

Lists and results "oft returned" can be summarized and reordered in order to presents the concepts and "most used" options in each particular situation □for instance the "United States" being populated at the very top of the "what country are you in?" question box, for every single person in the United States ... as opposed to the "alphabetical list" you see nearly ubiquitously need to scroll through every single day, today. As an automagical "better way to handle this situation" people could learn (be conditioner) to skip the order of boxes and instantly grab the "State" or "locality" option, fill in that first and watch the correct country automatically insert. This same theme works across industries and individual jobs you might see editors at creative independent publishing platforms finding "alter header watermark" at the top of their "Find Errors" menu; and in like kind students might see the underground addon "remove "GTurnItIn" clues" in the very same place.

Invariably someone will eventually make a HTML Editor function that will be in my "Find Errors menu" (but probably only after the "event" triggered that I'm no longer writing a document but now preparing to send it link insertion or export to another system) that fills the invisible space between "visible tags" like P and SPAN with Shakespeare and random literature and will eventually create a system that breaks the already very broken SPAM system you see "before you." At that time we'll have to build a collaborative system, one that doesn't allow only a handful of people to force the most important messages in the Universe into "blackhole-folder" for literally an infinitely larger population; thus forcing them to search through what was once Junk and is now the ... salvation of computing, humanity, and Adam. Through this process, we'll eventually see how all of these ideas and this entire message clearly comes to us from above, and it doesn't take at Information Technology Genius just to see that the global lack of use of "SPF+" records. which stand for "Sender Policy Framework" rather than "Sun Protection Factor" prove that the system, the system admins, and even you really want to be reading these messages.

More to the point the "Microsoft Visual Basic" properties window that's glowing and floating in the top of our "Augmented Reality" example of it being ... C'd for```the very frist time might completely disappear and be replaced with a read only one until it's allowed by the "rules of the room" to allow users to "edit in place" or some kind of merged "debug mode" that really is "Augmented Reality" smacking simulation and virtual reality in the "what?" Even closer, that square pane might be replaced with a Apple iPhone like "spinner" (a Rolodex thing, you know, from iAddressBook ☐I can't believe you don't know what a Rolodex is) somehow physically associated more closely with the item it's allowing "changes in properties or selection" for. Turning what once was the bells and whistles of "forms and buttons" into something much more intuitive and directly related to the task at hand, I'm talking about "wands." I mean, not really; but you know ☐it's magic ☐because it comes directly from user interaction (and ideas shared by groups of like minded users), and that's ... magic.

In the meantime I don't think it's right that anyone be forced to live in any "virtual or simulated or augmented reality" that they don't have control over ☐as in, nobody should be allowed to jail other sentient minds. The solution I see is simple, raise the city ☐which contains a "holo-jump-start" to create your very own city; and then let everyone that wants to jump to that tutorial floating city or to their ... "safe haven" do that whenever and wherever they'd like. Clearly I wouldn't be here writing to you today; and the point, the real point is that neither you would you ☐given the opportunity and understanding the difference there's no way anyone in the Universe would choose to make a home in "Planke space land of Darkness" even if they thought they were on the winning "dark team" that also has no control at all. Metaphorically I'm talking about jumping from Mad Max's Thunderdome (or the anarchy of the Island of the Flies) into something much safer and much more open and much more easily molded to something comfortable ☐Shangri-La or Atlantis or ... I mean don't steal my name for your city, OK?

Development of the game began in April 1979, directed by [Toru Iwatani] (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Taoru_Iwatani "Toru Iwatani") with a nine-man team. As his second video game for Namco, Iwatani wanted to create a game that could appeal to women as well as men, as most video games during that time period were "war games" or simple sports titles. While several sources claim the inspiration for the game was taken from a pizza with a slice removed, Iwatani has since stated that inspiration was also from rounding out the Japanese symbol "kuchi", meaning "mouth". The in-game characters were made to be cute and colorful, and to appeal to younger players. The original Japanese title of Puck Man was derived from the titular character's hockey puck shape.

THE FERTILE CRESCENT. I spend some time, sometimes; laying awake for days and staring at the ceiling and thinking about strange things. It dawned on me over the course of the recent "stuff" ☐ this strange escapade across Florida that perhaps the "new views" on dark matter are something made-to-fit in Planke-Pac land to what it truly is. Something like the world, our Earth ... a small map of the Universe as a whole ☐like a microcosm of it's Heavenly chemistry and makeup, and here we might see "stupid" in a sort of "it's all around us sort of mixing with the rest of everything" as a mini version of the Universe, where there might be clusters of "dark galaxies" sort of exploding with the regular kind in a sort of envelope of a sphere expanding from that original Big Bang ☐if you believe in that sort of thing. That sort of ties to some letter-map-to-hyper-loop-speed stuff that I sort of glanced at, I think it was a D within an N (or maybe an M); a way to use the (maybe w/ time travel) center of this tennis ball like structure as a waypoint to move large objects across the Universe. Just thinking out loud. Maybe it was done once or twice, maybe that's how we have Stargate's that traverse immense distances using something like Card's "phylotic links" ...

In the universe of the Ender's Game series, the ansible's functions involved a fictional subatomic particle, the philote.^[7] The two quarks inside a pi meson can be separated by an arbitrary distance, while remaining connected by "philotic rays".^[7] This concept is similar to quantum teleportation due to entanglement; however, in reality, quark confinement prevents quarks from being separated by any observable distance.

Card's version of the ansible was also featured in the video game Advent Rising, for which Card helped write the story, and in the movie Ender's Game, which was based on the book.^[8]

I hope you understand when I tell you that absolutely nothing is preferable to me than what I see here ☐a world of privileged people who were given everything and threw it away under want appears to be ... well, all I can say is that from this vantage point it appears to be ... the hubris to believe that "democracy can make Hell." There is something in the Universe bigger than you, than all of you together ☐bigger than whatever evil desire and force is making you think it's OK to ignore this message overtly, to shun "open eyed honest discussion" ... whatever it is that is making you think its OK to fight "mind controlled gun violence with the NRA" ... that's the end of your democracy the end of something born bright and hopeful ... it has become demonic and evil and this thing has literally been wrought an ELE by nothing more than the advent of the telephone and television.

It's clear to me in words like Kennedy and "appended" and the "cycling" of a story I'd never choose to live, let alone relive ☐it's clear to me nobody has "gotten the point" that we have not succeeded in overcoming this place, and these problems ☐that our children don't value enough the gift they're given by succeeding here, that we haven't built a society that can perpetuate the forward progress of morality ... without coming back here and either reliving the pain of hunger and disease and torture and overcoming silence over "(idiotic, disgustingly misplaced and sick) shame and imperfection" ... or literally being half destroyed because you've become something that God and goodness and the society you are staring at every day ☐our society and our morality would ne'er allow the hidden evil here to continue ... not if it was seen and spoken about.

I will not allow it to continue; nor to be saved here, nor ever seen living again, never again. Never again.

Never again here, nor anywhere that's ever been touched or affected at all by this place ☐this place I'm sure truly is the end of "the land" responsible for all life in the Universe, for all of Heaven and for the end of Hell.

That's everything, I see that's literally everything. Infer, gate and "no inferno" see it in Alonzo Mourning and the pillars of ZERO; see the half of the Bi-Den surviving ... see it as less than what you see in this land of silence, less trash and more future; more happiness, and that's the same "everyone really" ... maybe it's resurrected or "really molded" or whatever it means to see light in the world around us, and the society of people talking about things like "school shootings" and hating hte ☐ewven if

So long ago, as I was experiencing a sort of "space escapade" that centered around a return from the future, a sort of link between here and nowhere that might be the focal point of our entire story of 'evening' and ... sitting in my backyard in Bowling Green listening to story after story about time travel and ... space ships and ... actually seeing voodoo dolls on radio antennae and tanks in the streets ... this ancient sort of article in something called a newspaper stood out as a message from the "aliens or whomever" talking about the "cosmic microwave background radiation" and how at the beginning of time, well at some point of early condensation between the beginning and the rocks and stars we see around the Earth ... that there was something like "actual warmth" pervading everywhere in the vacuum of space.

The kind of thing that could power starships or entire civilizations with almost no work at all ... like being able to use photovoltaics and/or geothermal heat in a place where there were yet no stars formed or they'd be too far away or ... and ... and ever since then I've associated this particular time period with the planet Venus (a time between the beginning and now, encoded in planet) and the fertile crescent and ... don't mean to dwell on this radiation thing.

The Cosmic Microwave Background, or CMB, is radiation that fills the universe and can be detected in every direction. Microwaves are invisible to the naked eye so they cannot be seen without instruments. Created shortly after the universe came into being in the Big Bang, the CMB represents the earliest radiation that can be detected. Astronomers have likened the CMB to seeing sunlight penetrating an overcast sky.

What is the CMB?

Looking out into deep space, and therefore back into deep time, astronomers see the CMB radiation saturating space beginning at about 378,000 years after the Big Bang. Before the creation of the CMB, the universe was a hot, dense and opaque plasma containing both matter and energy. Photons could not travel freely, so no light escaped from those earlier times.

Earth	Solar System	Stars of our Galaxy	Local Group of Galaxies	Galaxies of the Universe	Dark Ages (few stars)	Recombination Era	Inflation (very brief)	Big Bang
Look-back time	none	up to 14 hours	up to tens of thousands of years	up to 5 million years	up to 13.37 billion years	13.37 to 13.82 billion years	13.82 billion years	13.82 billion years

The CMB was created at a time in cosmic history called the Recombination Era. The universe had cooled to a temperature of about 5,000 degrees Fahrenheit (2,700 degrees Celsius), cool enough for electrons and protons to "recombine" into hydrogen atoms. Photons were released, and today this radiation is called the CMB.

How Pigeons Discovered the CMB

In 1963, Arno Penzias and Robert Wilson were studying faint microwave signals from the Milky Way galaxy. They found a mysterious noise of unknown origin.

At first, the noise was thought to be interference caused by pigeon droppings on the antenna equipment. Pigeons were trapped and dung was cleaned from the antenna. Ultimately, Penzias and Wilson realized that the noise was an actual signal.

WILSON AND PENZIAS (CREDIT: BELL LABS)

Proof of the Big Bang

By the mid-20th century, there were two competing theories for the origin of the universe. The Steady State theory held that matter is continuously created as the universe expands, the overall density of the universe remains the same and the universe has existed forever. The Big Bang theory stated that the expanding universe must have been denser in the past, and therefore at the very beginning must have been a point of infinite density.

Penzias and Wilson theorized that if the Big Bang theory was correct, the universe would be filled with background radiation left over from the creation event.

The Vedas (/veɪdəz, 'vi:-/; [1] Sanskrit: वेदveda, "knowledge") are a large body of religious texts originating in ancient India. Composed in Vedic Sanskrit, the texts constitute the oldest layer of Sanskrit literature and the oldest scriptures of Hinduism. [2][3] Hindus consider the Vedas to be apauruṣeya, which means "not of a man, superhuman"[4] and "impersonal, authorless".[5][6][7]

Vedas are also called śruti ("what is heard") literature,[8] distinguishing them from other religious texts, which are called smṛti ("what is remembered"). The Veda, for orthodox Indian theologians, are considered revelations seen by ancient sages after intense meditation, and texts that have been more carefully preserved since ancient times.[9][10] In the Hindu Epic the Mahabharata, the creation of Vedas is credited to Brahma.[11] The Vedic hymns themselves assert that they were skillfully created by Rishis (sages), after inspired creativity, just as a carpenter builds a chariot.[10][note 1]

According to tradition, Vyasa is the compiler of the Vedas, who arranged the four kinds of mantras into four Samhitas (Collections).[13][14] There are four Vedas: the Rigveda, the Yajurveda, the Samaveda and the Atharvaveda.[15][16] Each Veda has been subclassified into four major text types – the Samhitas (mantras and benedictions), the Aranyakas (text on rituals, ceremonies, sacrifices and symbolic-sacrifices), the Brahmanas (commentaries on rituals, ceremonies and sacrifices), and the Upanishads (texts discussing meditation, philosophy and spiritual knowledge).[15][17][18] Some scholars add a fifth category – the Upasanas (worship).[19][20]

Very clearly my intent here in this place is to help us use this message and this opportunity to build ... here in what appears to be the the largest "shared reality" not just in my field of vision but also perhaps of the many disparate disjointed and barely connected watery "rios" and neighborhoods of KNN and "The Good Place" ... for us together to build a ubiquitous safety system paired with a sort of "social contract self governance" that helps to create beneficial and "good spirited" competition as well as ensure the safety of absolutely everyone and everything in and out of creation. I see that we've sort of grown up in a house of mirrors twisted and contorted out of control, as if at the first sign of fear we "all" balked and ran the other way and somehow what appears to have been designed specifically to help us to build a safety system that would work not only in this shared reality but throughout the Heavens ... seems to have fallen into the hands of darkness and deceit and greed ... and a level of inhumanity that I often describe to myself in my long soliloquies as the hands of monsters that never would have been created or succeeded or survived in reality.

It appears that paired together with these tools that I am presenting, with the idea of overcoming "natural death and disease and nature and death itself" something here was created and managed to survive and fester to a level far beneath the world you and I see and the people you and I are, something far more sick and disgusting than any animal ever could be—all around us hiding in the shadows and in the invisible and the darkness and the rooms we cannot see into or even know exist—there far scarier than anything I can even put to words is a whole world or society or future of this place filled with torturers who seek to cause pain just for the sake of it or relishing in the misfortune of others—as if someone had gone—and it does appear that someone has gone far out of their way to "c" ... to create succubus's and demons that feed on fear and negative emotion and, and that's what you're hiding by refusing to talk about what it is that you see, what you're afraid of, and be very sure that if any of you still still stare at these sparks and this smoke and think that there's anything to fear of a "natural verbal and written reaction" ... see that belief and the widespread idiocy that "System of AD Own" has the nerve to call "sacred silence" that's something too that we should fear almost as much as the hidden threats and sickness that I know you see woven into this message in our words and our history and our religions just as much as I see it, now—staring at it through my teary eyes.

I seek to provide the Universe and all of you and even myself with something I have a fond memory of hearing Senator Wyden echo' from the Congressional Chambers of this once truly great and truly proud land—that we can provide both security and privacy ... even in this place where you as a group appear to believe that I deserve zero privacy at all, and in exchange for grossly violating the Constitution and that specific right that I believe God has guaranteed not only for "all Americans" but for all people and for all the future ... in exchange for the absolute lack of privacy you offer me ... on top of that you seem to think it's appropriate or funny or some kind of game to torture me out of house and home, literally to the point of actual starvation and then on top of that, on top of refusing to ... to continue to function as a working society that "buys books" and clicks on website links and actually "comments in public" you have the gaul and the audacity and the nerve to not only to threaten to torture me repeatedly (actually intimating that you're somehow doing it in secret, in a place where I can't see it any the literal singular effect of all of this ... to shift a "space" and a single letter and turn "down" into "own."

Pieces of the Sun

How was the solar system formed? How does life exist on Earth, but not on planets like Venus? These are some of the questions that scientists will try to answer with help from the Genesis mission, launched by NASA on August 8, 2001.

The Sun contains over 99 percent of the matter that makes up our solar system. With that in mind, scientists believe that pieces of the solar wind resemble the dust, gas and ice from which the various bodies of our solar system evolved. To better understand the connection between the solar wind and the evolution of our solar system, NASA's Genesis mission set out to capture particles of the solar wind and bring them back for study on Earth.

Interplanetary Superhighway Makes Space Travel Simpler

07.17.02

A "freeway" through the solar system resembling a vast array of virtual winding tunnels and conduits around the Sun and planets, as envisioned by an engineer at NASA's Jet Propulsion Laboratory, Pasadena, Calif., can slash the amount of fuel needed for future space missions.

*Image right: Artist's concept of interplanetary superhighway.

Called the Interplanetary Superhighway, the system was conceived by Martin Lo, whose software was used to help design the flight path for NASA's Genesis mission, which is currently using this "freeway in space" on its mission to collect solar wind particles for return to Earth.

Most missions are designed to take advantage of the way gravity pulls on a spacecraft when it swings by a body such as a planet or moon. Lo's concept takes advantage of another factor, the Sun's pull on the planets or a planet's pull on its nearby moons. Forces from many directions nearly cancel each other out, leaving paths through the gravity fields in which spacecraft can travel.

Each planet and moon has five locations in space called Lagrange points, where one body's gravity balances another's. Spacecraft can orbit there while burning very little fuel. To find the Interplanetary Superhighway, Lo mapped some possible flight paths among the Lagrange points, varying the distance the spacecraft would go and how fast or slow it would travel. Like threads twisted together to form a rope, the possible flight paths formed tubes in space. Lo plans to map out these tubes for the whole solar system.

Lo's research is based on theoretical work begun in the late nineteenth century by the French mathematician Henri Poincaré. In 1978, NASA's International Sun-Earth Explorer 3 was the first mission to use low energy orbits around a Lagrange point. Later, using low energy paths between Earth and the Moon, controllers at NASA's Goddard Space Flight Center, Greenbelt, Md., sent the spacecraft to the first encounter with a comet, Comet Giacobini-Zinner, in 1985.

... but here this space dust that's clearly the answer, it;s the how and the why and the when and ... and it;s everything in between and before and after and ... and here in this place it's clear I'm looking at "why sancfified" and at why we're able to succeed-and ... and ... I mean, I still think we are able to, I do-I just can;t waut fir there to be someone / other than just myself / to sign this thing "sic."

I'm K. C here u c i fix it. I just can't help but know that it has everything to do with "greetings seasoning" and capsaicin and I know it's ISON and I know it's cycles and macro-orbits and the pillars of creation and the pillars of salt and the pillars of QWERTY and towers and infinite power and ...

In 1991, another method of analyzing low energy orbits was used by engineers from JPL and the Japanese Space Agency to enable the Japanese Hiten mission to reach the Moon. Inspired by this pioneering work and research conducted by scientists at the University of Barcelona, Lo conceived the theory of the Interplanetary Superhighway.

Lo and his colleagues have turned the underlying mathematics of the Interplanetary Superhighway into a tool for mission design called "LTool," using models and algorithms developed at Purdue University, West Lafayette, Ind. The new LTool was used by JPL engineers to redesign the flight path for the Genesis mission to adapt to a change in launch dates. Genesis launched in August 2001.

The flight path was designed for the spacecraft to leave Earth and travel to orbit the Lagrange point. After five loops around this Lagrange point, the spacecraft will fall out of orbit without any maneuvers and then pass by Earth to a Lagrange point on the opposite side of the planet. Finally, it will return to Earth's upper atmosphere to drop off its samples of solar wind in the Utah desert.

"Genesis wouldn't need to use any fuel at all in a perfect world," Lo said. "But since we can't control the many variables that occur throughout the mission, we have to make some corrections as Genesis completes its loops around a Lagrange point of Earth. The savings on the fuel translates into a better and cheaper mission."

Lo added, "This concept does not guarantee easy access to every part of the solar system. However, I can envision a place where we might construct and service science platforms around one of the Moon's Lagrange points. Since Lagrange points are landmarks for the Interplanetary Superhighway, we might be able to shunt spacecraft to and from such platforms." A team at NASA's Johnson Space Center, Houston, working with the NASA Exploration Team, proposes to someday use the Interplanetary Superhighway for future human space missions.

"Lo's work has led to breakthroughs in simplifying mission concepts for human and robotic exploration beyond low-Earth orbit," said Doug Cooke, manager of Johnson's Advanced Development Office. "These simplifications result in fewer space vehicles needed for a broad range of mission options."

The work on the Interplanetary Superhighway for space mission design was nominated for a Discover Innovation Award by Discover magazine editors and an outside panel of experts.

but sometimes I dream things and they instantly become real-sometimes I dream that nothing will ever be the same, and sometimes I dream that we're so strong and immovable nothing could change us. Back on track, there's a very special key to me-connected to the short and ... strangely well seen piece I wrote in California, from the throes of a "treatment center" that I believe I am not only not wrong to suggest needs to be spoken more clearly, but to point out that you yourself have significant culpability ignoring the "New American Standard" for torturing Jesus Christ. This key is something I recall nearly perfectly, and that's the verse of John 12:1 which once spoke about Jesus feet' being washed in fine wine ... during my lifetime and as close to this actual event occurring as I can fathom ... it appears that this verse was literally changed (in a way I've described as perhaps the source of darkness, in a way that didn't require your entire lives to be relived because of a tiny little word change, but one that might make you wake up and wonder if anyone else has heard the song called "Ramble On" by LED Cavendish/CAVENDVILESHH) ... to "fine nard" which of course links almost perfectly to my idea that the Pillar of Salt from the story of Lot and his wife and ... the numerous other Biblical references to salt and light ... well, salt on a road is a good thing-it keeps us from spoiling during the winter. All told, salt seems to be a ubiquitously "good thing" for immortal things and notoriously bad for things that are "in the Universe" and ... alive. I think it's clear this thing we are experiencing is uniquely designed above to keep us from the horrendous mistake of not understanding any of this message about space mold and ending pain and hunger and somehow thinking it's OK to damn "people just like ourselves" to be ... becoming new young people who very much would resent aged and disgusting demons in Heaven ever suggesting they were the same people.

The Bible Code in question uses an "equidistant letter skip" of 50 for all of the arrows pointing to the book centered around the birth of Adam except for the book of Deuteronomy, which is the "life and death of Moses" and that particular book uses a skip of 49. I've always seen the 50 states, and my ... personal meaning of "fifty" (it's code for OMGZA) ... and now here's someone else's writing \(reproduced below\) about that code.

"Do not think that I came to destroy the Law or the Prophets. I did not come to destroy but to fulfill." Matthew 5:17

In my introduction to the Bible code, I strove and completed a few versions of my own ELS (Equidistance Letter Spacing) computer code. To test out the program, I used the first "hidden" message current and ancient bible decoders point out. Beginning in Genesis 1:1 and Exodus 1:1, start with the first time the Hebrew letter Taw appears, and count every 50th Hebrew letter consecutively. We found in the previous article, both books have the word Torah encoded at the beginning.

Satisfied with the program, I began looking for the same codes in Leviticus, Numbers and Deuteronomy, but did not find the word Torah hidden in the first verses. In Leviticus at an ELS of 50, the word Torah first begins in chapter 4, verse 30. The ancient decoders, like me would ask, Why?

The ancient decoders investigated other words which could be formed from Leviticus 1:1 and arrived at the following using an ELS of 8.

Lev 1:1 וַיֹּאמֶר יְהוָה אֲלֵיכֶם לֹא תִשְׁתַּחַווּ בְּמִזְבֵּחַ

וַיֹּאמֶר

The sacred name for God.

In the book of Numbers, starting at each Taw at an ELS of 50, the encoded word Torah does not begin until verse 51 of the first chapter. Once again, we would ask why, but the stubborn and/or astute kept digging. They found, if you start with the third Hei (ה) in the first verse and use an ELS of 50, you will find the word Torah, but written backwards.

Num 1:1 וַיֹּאמֶר יְהוָה אֲלֵיכֶם לֹא תִשְׁתַּחַווּ בְּמִזְבֵּחַ סִינִי בְּאֶחָד לְחֶדֶשׁ הַשְׁנִי בְּשָׁנָה הַשְׁנִית לְצֹאתָם מִמִּצְרָיאָה מִן־עַמּוֹד לְאָמֵן 50
Num 1:2 שָׂאוּ אֶת רָאשׁ כָּל עַדְתְּ בָנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל לְמִשְׁפְּחוֹתָם לְבֵית אֲבֹתָם בְּמִסְפֵּר שְׁנִים כָּל זֶכֶר לְגָלֻלָּתָם
Num 1:3 מִבְּנֵי עֲשָׂרִים שָׁנָה וּמַעַלָּה כָּל יִצְאָ צָבָא בְּיִשְׂרָאֵל תִּפְקֹדוּ אֶת־לְצֹאתָם אֶתְּתָה וְאֶתְּרָאָה
ה ר ו ת

In the last book of Deuteronomy, which I prefer the Hebrew name Debarim, signifying words from the heart, the first time the word Torah is encoded with an ELS of 50 is in the 42nd verse of the first chapter. If we found Torah in reverse in Numbers with an ELS of 50, symmetrically thinking, we should see the same in Deuteronomy, but this does not occur until chapter 5 and verse 16. Puzzling.

I think the following shows us a characteristic of God. Whenever we think we see a pattern in life, or history, or astronomy, things change or there is something different to keep us guessing. Either a test of faith or a test of our drive for knowledge and understanding, or whatever the reasoning the ancients continued.

If the ELS is changed to 49, then the word Torah in reverse is found in verse 5 of the first chapter. Now, there is a need to explain why the ELS was altered from 50 to 49, and why verse 5 instead of verse 1. According to the Talmud, and if you actually read the first four verses, it seems to be an introduction to Deuteronomy, so verse 5 is considered the actual start. I've seen some mathematical explanations for the number 49, but I don't have a good feel for the reason 49 works.

Creatively, one has summarized this "coincidence" as Torah forward and backwards points to God.

Now, comes the time for me to interject some of my other tools to this ELS study. In my few investigations of ELS, I am okay with using it, as long as it aides me in understanding more about God and the authenticity of His word. Honestly, I don't need the ELS to see that the Bible is woven together, and with the ELS code in my Bible study tool box, I think God may allow me to see some cool things.

Using ELS, we have found a very interesting view on the Torah, but here is a little extra. The first letter of the Torah is the Beth and the last letter is the Lamed, which forms Leb the word for heart. Which is why I chose the featured image for this article to summarize this study. The Torah is wrapped around by the heart. We are to apply this to our heart as the two greatest commandments Jesus taught come from the Torah. In short, Love God and Love your Neighbor.

There is another form of coding I'm learning called Atbash, which I wish to apply to the word Leb, the ending and beginning of the Torah. Atbash is a letter replacement method to form a new word. There are 22 letters in the Hebrew Alphabet, but if we divide them by two groups and line them up our coding becomes:

Replacing the Lamed (ל) with the Aleph (א), and the Beth (ב) with the Mem (ם), we form the word Em (אם), which is an ancient word for binding, glue, pillar, or a word I will save for last.

In primitive Hebrew, the Aleph was drawn as an ox head and the Mem was drawn as water (Mem actually means water). According to Jeff Benner "Em" pictorially represents: glue was made by placing the hides and other animal parts of slaughtered animals in a pot of boiling water. As the hide boiled, a thick sticky substance formed at the surface of the water. This substance was removed and used as a binding agent.

To apply this, God said through Jeremiah:

"I will put My law in their minds, and write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be My people." Jer 31:33b

Here's some stuff about names like Mohammed and Jesus in Bible Code which looks super fancy,

A grid of text from the Bible code, showing various names and words. Several red circles and lines are drawn over the text, highlighting specific letters or groups of letters, likely indicating encoded names like Mohammed and Jesus.

... and of course my favorite, over Isaiah 52:13 which ostensibly is very much about me and about the Second Coming, with my full name encoded over "Jesus, Mars, Saturn, Christ and Zeus" in ... I think all five of the Books of Torah. I imagine this is unheard of, it's probably also news. Frankly, you should also take it as a "sign" ... I'm not going away. You can also see the letter "Y" pretty clearly, that's the book of Exodus.

It is why, ending slavery; that's why we're here—that's why this isn't going away—and that's why there's no getting around "using the news to save ... free speech and thought."

See, my servant will act wisely[a];

he will be raised and lifted up and highly exalted.

14 Just as there were many who were appalled at him[b]— his appearance was so disfigured beyond that of any human being and his form marred beyond human likeness—

The Bible Code cross begins with these words: My servant shall prosper, he shall be exalted and lifted up, and shall be very high. 14 According as many were appalled at thee--so marred was his visage unlike that of a man, and his form unlike that of the sons of men--So shall he startle many nations,

Here is a completely unrelated link to a novel called “Seineves” by Neal Stephenson about the moon blowing up due to some sort of Armageddon/natural disaster and in that novel it did not destroy only the state of Florida.

Florida is also not where all of the people fundamentally responsible for the global silence in the skies currently reside. Some of them are dead already. Neal currently works for Magic Leap, which is headquartered in Plantation, FL—which is where I was born and raised.

There are currently no asteroids headed directly for Florida.

A quick search for the phrase “1 minute west of Bucharest” does in fact yield an actual place in Bucharest and a reference to a state or road or something that read something like “Florida and ...” and usually that’s a good thing. Bucharest, on ... “when.” Now I see “ILFOV county” which has nothing to do with PRouli.

Florida, I'm not “rolfing” ... zing.

To note, I had planned on retelling a story of a "hallucination" that I lived through in North Carolina in 2014--this "hallucination" consisted of a story about a time machine built into "the moon" that somehow for some reason resulted in "the moon being blown up" repeatedly, over and over again. I recall "the spirit in me" undoing that, over and over again--as I literally listened to the sound of an explosion, over and over again. This ancient memory was "brought up again" while i was in Tampa; and additional context was added suggesting that someone or something was "searching" for a copy or version of "Earth" that was either "in reality" or somehow more closely tied to the supposed fictitious or surreptitious time travel "technology" hidden ... "in the moon." It was suggested in Tampa that this thing was destroyed; and that spurned some emails that I don't fully recall the context of.

This was, of course; a most Holy-sacrament-in-the-Universe related hallucination. You also, are a drug related hallucination that I often now-a-days equate to the "snake" outside the house of Beetlejuice, and also to the recent change of the Sagittarian constellation connected to the Birth of Jesus Christ to something about a man fighting with a snake not to understand "Ophicus." With o'pen hands; and no arms--put this on the news.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. [1][2][3]

So there's 8 or so billion people, they're all sitting in a room with a big table. Rumor has it there's another table in another room; but I can't see it--and I'm the only one talking to myself. Every once in awhile I'll blink a little longer than usual, and ... and then sometimes graffiti pops up on the ground around me--more than I suggested I saw at first. Sometimes there's headlines that look like they might have something to do with what I'm thinking about, or writing about--but it's hard to say for certain. Without doubt there's people taking deals I wouldn't take, or compromises I wouldn't even think about--worst of all the "you and I" in OUI is missing some kind of guitar-interface-to-the-intercom system.

I'm looking at keys I think make sense--like "NO EAST WITHOUT JUMP NORTH" in Washington. That's kind of like saying our trajectory is clearly Q, and if we don't alter it... our version of East is ... I mean, it's a "deal I wouldn't take" ... something that wouldn't be good enough, I think; if you were "only here" which is the heart of why I think people are ... somehow conversing in some other place.

So my glyphs; the arrows that literally define the thing that's THE "TRINE A WEB SITE" that's the TAWS, it's not Amazon.com--even though you might think it is... anyway, it's the key "arrow" pointing to the northeast... on the sign of Mars and in that logo for that space agency--it's not just NASA, it's every one of them--they all have the Martian "TO NE" ... one rune, it looks something like the Stargate point of origin, except it's not an A without the question "who is the bar" ... neither that nor the actual key to the Greek letter that is the long form name of the "AWS." It's *a *web *site, personally I'm pretty sure that's the key; I mean, I didn't actually make it the key, but I think it's the key.

I think delivering FREEDOM is the actual why, and how--I mean, freedom and happiness and a Heaven where people don't go around making quiet "scare adam land" out of the place they were born, which also happens to have the key to why ... "NO HELL" is the heart of my contribution, I think; here, in this place, where it's somehow connected to this NICEMEAN CREED and NICEMEAN COUNCIL; or whatever; I don't see a council, I don't see much communication, to be honest.

So I personally made a mental note that there's no "rectangle" or "square" glyph in the majority of our languages--if you're an avid ancient computer user, you'll remember that sometimes when you paste non ASCII characters in an old "ASCII only" input boxes (in a window, also a square-shape) and ... you'll get a little ambiguous box. There's some more language keys I've noticed lately, but you'll see "rect" in resurrection and I've been toying with "OVER" as being a key to like, mathematical division hidden in words. More annoying key (missing n and h ... is it now? is it an antenna?) ... that's a reference to the Egyptian symbol for "life" and it too.. it has something to do with "no parting of G" and you can bank (online too) in Great Britain and that's where we are.

So if I were trying to spread the GOOD NEWS; that's something like C... A GT K V and that's the hidden "greater than" symbol in Washington which originally meant "godspeed." God speed to you, figuring out why we aren't going East without a corrective (and visible) R. More interesting stuff, I'd say it's a pretty sure thing that Adam is sure K is a glyph not just of a west pointing arrow, but also of "the Western Wall" and apparently in Hebrew that word is "Kotel" so that's reassuring that I'm not just making a bunch of stuff up.

Again, that crossbar, or "dash" or ... whatever in the Greek symbol for uh "half-life according to Valve Corporation" or an upsidown (still not a word?) Y in it's lower case form; that's a key to a Hebrew prayer according to the bar, who is sure it's also a key to the Hebrew word for New Testament, that's Brit Ha-dash-a. I get that we think "everyone knows" or "everyone sees" or something like that--but I don't see a response, not a real one; not one on any forums or Twitter or dissenter or Facebook or really anywhere--I don't see a ... you know, a conversation about why we aren't busy talking about this interesting message encoded in Wyoming, and China and Washington and ... Tokyo--for instance. Anyway that one line, it sounds something like "who the bar, I dunno ..." and right after that is the name of "city of time" which is Jerusalem; because it's got USA in the heart of it; and ... it's the key to the Crusades and a map, all over the world and history--about what's going on, and ...

I hope we can put it on the NEWS, because I think that's how we start talking about it, here; where we'll see the conversation leads us to more interesting finds and revelations and this time it's not just me talking. I imagine there's more than just "Florida" that's now "fluent" in this hidden "Adamic Language" (according to Wikipedia, at least, we still have the candle-and-arc letters there after my name) ...

Dabar-Yahweh means roughly Word of the Lord. See below for a discussion of Dabar, and see YHWH for an article on the name Yahweh.

Dabar-Yahweh is one of the few dominant Hebrew names or titles of God in the Bible, although not often enough recognized as such. This beautiful name is introduced as late as Genesis 15:1 where the Word of God is in a vision to Abraham and speaks to him (compare: Elohim occurs in Genesis 1:1, YHWH Elohim in 2:4, and Elyon in 14:18).

In case you were wondering ... you have permission to speak freely. It's one of the God guaranteed rights in the Constitution; something I've repeatedly tried to connect to the 10 Commandments; the Bill of Rights, specifically, but... you know.

SACREDOULS -

I am accepting charitable donations.,

This is the shortest book I've published in years. It contains the "halflife marker" that I'd like to associate with this message turning around, rather than the halfway point of the life of "an." I've long associated those two letters with the beginning and the end of my biological brain, and to be as clear as day we are on "ICS." That's the single letter following "N" in my actual birth name(s)--Dobrinsky was shortened .. because "asthetics."

there's no light ... mamma, I can't see at all

I'm preparing to write something that I am sure will change the face of "who we are." That's what it's designed for, and it's something I've put off because of the fear that it will literally make me disappear from some parts of "Creation" (as, that means everything) ... I want to change how this world thinks and deals with "freedom of body and mind" and I want us to have a secure belief that the memories and the soul of a person cannot be sold ever, that you don't have any right to "sharing my life" and that I have the right to share whatever I want with you--and clearly understand that our "i" has changed at "freedom" and I want us all to be able to do these things--these things that I know take ancient souls and thousands of years of memory and renew them with happiness.

I can't have a universe or a world that allows some authority to keep you from your own souls and your own memories, and frankly from being able to see anything that anyone wants to share. At the heart of "freedom of speech" and the ability to see that I am trying to show you what "the J memory" actually means--and the Universe needs to see that it does something better than "the embarrassing sum of my memories" or perhaps even worse than that the selected lies and disruption of something that I don't know--haven't experienced--and hasnt affected who and what I am or the words that I know connect Creation and this message to proof and Acts.

Literally I stand here seeing the "hidden use of a memory manager" connect those three letters to who and what I really am--to what I belief is my past and present and my working memory--and I know it has holes in it, and I know it has significant assisted outside information added and I see it's literally encoded in "firefly pattern of J" and the phylum and kingdum "Photinus Pyralis." It's another artifact of a nameserver that sees everything in the world at this singular most important moment in the history of consciousness evolution and has named these things so that we will see just how important it is.

I'm not really asking, I'm telling you. These are words that used to be encoded in the state of South Carolina when salvation came from "Exit to Eden" and in "Are you for SCUBA" and in Aruba's on Commercial Blvd just outsoude the McNamara plague; so I'm telling you our souls are not for sale, they are not property, and shared memories are revokable. I'm trying to help us see how these technologies can and have been abused--and how it's central to this story and this place that we build a "subconscious voting system" that actually votes based on "what you really want" rather than some kind of predefined pyramidal "I'm voting with Dr. Dre" or sacking the Blitzkrieg. We have the ability to do either thing; and we have the ability to see how swarm and hive behavior is literally encoded in our countries foundational structure--how voting against party lines is not just a privilege it's a demand when the "party is wrong" and believe me, the party is always wrong if you are autovoting. It's foundational to what "democratic process" means, and we live in a world that has somehow been gamed into gaming itself out of "free speech" and "free press" and that's a sickness that needs to be remedied for all time.

I want to write about all the "good things we can add" and how that J means "adding wikipedia like auto understanding" and adding "functionally related memories and beliefs" specifically ... "for that J memory" as a foundational paradigm shift in "what's possible" here in this place where we refuse to acknowledge gthat this message tells us we are ignoring significant benefit to Nassau from Sawtelle to "listen to the last obligatory lessage."

I want to Ramble On about how there is a defunct series of beliefs here in this place that show that our souls are currently fraught with "tautologocial fallacy" and we have the ability to "autocorrect" things like that--things that are the source of racism and jingoism and believing that you are somehow "correct" to stare at this world and think that freedom only belongs to "some kind of animal of higher evolution" -- we stare at a message about malarkey and malady and if you don't see it today, you will soon understand how this place defines the solid line between "sanity and goodness" and dead.

Memories or lies that are dead and gone, or maybe more. I cannot fathom how we do not understand the direness of the "straights" you stare at, how we cannot see the danger we have imposed on ourselves and the future by ignoring this place, and I will nto stand for it continuing.

Every word you read, every phrase and every picture could be; should be connectedt to a series of memories, facts, ideas, and those things should be clearly delineated--thats the purpose of this "beginning of a message that is the end of mess and start of sages."

For the life of me, I cannot figure out why you want me to hate you. It's clear though, that's what the "world wants."

Care, I still think I'm Captain America; and I still think we ... this place is the beginning of a Trojan Horse like wave of freedom and technology and toys and happiness;

¹⁹ If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

I'm telling you--this world wants me to hate it vehemently--and I do. I want change, and I want it now. I much prefer "he's happy, he's happy" to "uhhh huh."

-RBZ ... by your lack of response.

You know, just as soon as you stop hating "me" and "this." it's simple words ... we have tacit, tangible, and obvious proof that the entirety of our history is basically here to remind us not to mis-use technology ... not to hate, not to lose ... "everything" and still that's what it seems we are doing.

"You people" seem hyper-focused on my "facade" rather than the proof and the message all around us; the mess, the sickness, the natural disasters that we certainly should see are "stoppable" at :"majority force" and just a minority of people actually speaking out. I really don't mean "you" but rather literally everyone around me--get out of my head, forget about trying to get rid of me ... forget about me needing to be "perfect" or "up to some standard" I am what I am, and I am not embarrassed--or wrong.

The Servant Exalted (Philippians 2:5-11) Yeah, Exalt "This... see Silicon and Acts." There's certainly not "twelve of us" if you have something planned other than "destroy" and see Troy to victory--it's time to do it.

¹⁴ As astonished at thee have been many, (So marred by man his appearance, And his form by sons of men.)

CRY O GENICS AND THE VULGAR ERA

and our co-holy sea of ... "we see an alcoholics anonymous" is "Isaac".

The Cryogenian (/kraɪən'ðʒenɪən/, from Greek κρύος (krýos), meaning "cold" and γένεσις (génésis), meaning "birth") is a geologic period that lasted from 720 to 635 million years ago.^[5] It forms the second geologic period of the Neoproterozoic Era, preceded by the Tonian Period and followed by the Ediacaran.

The Sturtian and Marinoan glaciations occurred during the Cryogenian period,^[6] which are the greatest ice ages known to have occurred on Earth. These events are the subject of much scientific controversy. The main debate contests whether these glaciations covered the entire planet (the so-called "Snowball Earth") or a band of open sea survived near the equator (termed "slushball Earth").

Originated in Latin as aerae vulgaris (vulgaris from vulgus: "the common people", i.e. those who are not royalty) at least as early as 1615, long before vulgar came to mean "crudely indecent". Earliest English usage is 1635. CU.

Alternative names for the Anno Domini era include vulgaris aerae (found 1615 in Latin),^[39] "Vulgar Era" (in English, as early as 1635),^[40] "Christian Era" (in English, in 1652),^[41] "Common Era" (in English, 1708),^[42] and "Current Era".^[43] Since 1856,^[44] the alternative abbreviations CE and BCE, (sometimes written C.E. and B.C.E.) are sometimes used in place of AD and BC. (really, see you... Fuck, see me.

Every town is Babylon: oh desert... change your heart; I will not sleep until this place is a dream come true. I dream of nothing less grande and world changing than doors to Heaven appearing magically in every airport and bus station, of a world transformed by the truth of our existence--of a process of growing and assimilating that turns this world into something that none of us can even dream. Something that I don't believe has ever truly been; but hey--I could be wrong. The great point though is that this world changing process needs to be guided. and it needs to ensure that the great things that come from being able to use "magic" (and I mean it, it's magic to the world of the real) to end natural disasters and acts of God and nearly all diseases and to do this ... nearly instantly--that we bring the good effects and the lessons of the process everywhere, literally everywhere else in and out of Creation.

[ALL TA | JOSEPH'S DREAM(LAND) | OWE ME ALF]

I've personally sat in this Hell of invisible bars on our skies in phrases like "that's the limit' long enough, and so have you--and so has anyone else in a 'place like this.' The simple fact that this world exists in this state, it's proof that we haven't learned--that we haven't grown to a place where this technology has positively altered the birth and generational transition cycle "well enough" to lose the need to ... birth children in a cauldron of change rather than a future that has benefited from it.

This is no way to "raise a generation of children to ascend" and that should be abundantly clear--the fact that we stand here in silence is ... it's a clear sign. The change we need to seek is much deeper and farther reaching than just this place--but it's creators and our "peers" however many or few there may be in the hidden "rocks" of the boots of the Princess Bride... and the stories I hear ... conversing in "strange meditative states" with the insivisible world I'd prefer to walk to.

Aeneas is a character in the New Testament. According to Acts 9:32-33, he lived in Lydda, and had been a cripple for eight years. When Peter said to him, "Jesus Christ heals you. Get up and roll up your mat," he was healed and got up.

The account of Aeneas being healed is followed by an account of the raising of Dorcas.

In Greco-Roman mythology, Aeneas (/ɪn'i:əs/^[1] Greek: Αἴνεας, Aineás, possibly derived from Greek αἰνή meaning "praised") was a Trojan hero, the son of the prince Anchises and the goddess Aphrodite \(Venus\). His father was a first cousin of King Priam of Troy (both being grandsons of Ilus, founder of Troy), making Aeneas a second cousin to Priam's children (such as Hector and Paris). He is a character in Greek mythology and is mentioned in Homer's Iliad. Aeneas receives full treatment in Roman mythology, most extensively in Virgil's Aeneid, where he is cast as an ancestor of Romulus and Remus. He became the first true hero of Rome. Snorri Sturluson identifies him with the Norse Æsir Vidarr.^[2]

The name is incontrovertibly Adamically "Jesus, here, to end Satan and begin Asgard." This statement the heart of the story of Oz and Kansas and "turning around" to clearly see "simulated reality" is an atrocity to force people literally in the heart and beginning of Heaven to be locked in like a prison. It's the key to "Norse" and to "we are the reason" and it comes from a change in how we see "morality" in a place where secrets and "a better place" have tarnished to the core everything that place can and should stand for.

Our better place begins with "NOS'RE" those two letters the heart of Creation, only missing ... the "a" that is hidden by that strange apostrophy that is the key to the parted waters of Exodus.

[UR WELCOM | CURE | KANSAS]

It's as simple as seeing the two letters "As" connect Norse Mythology and "Asgard" to the mythological city of Atlantis and to the floating city in the skies of Star Wars and to El Dorado and to the secondary well known two letter key to "Adam's Name" that "an" that links Christianity and messianically and Satan to this same ... "turn around" ... it's clear as day that "an" is the literal "memory manager assisted" life of the human Jesus Christ.

It's "SR" in Israel and in the heart of these linguistic calls for an "about face" .. they tie the Silicon symbol hidden away in the Sound of Silence and Carly Simon and Gene Simmons ... and rocking this proof of the Creation of all language and our entire history ... to move from the end of Genesis to the beginning of Exodus.

SLUR; E, SIS -

It's connected here, in my experience and sort of "amazement at the 'trix of the Matrix of mythology and the words that I speak out of my own mouth, of my own volition. We stand here the center of a planet, a place designed to literally be seen as "the Trojan Horse" ... a small seed that grows quickly and envelops the whole of Creation.

I've long searched in my mind and in this heart of a magical message of answers encoded in everything from signs on the road to the entirety of our history and nearly every piece of art ... for the source of the technologies that I see in use here, the disclosure of which is the heart of the Singularity, this same thing that is the Trojan Horse. Things like "where did holodecks come from before Roddenberry" and settled on a number of guesses, backed by things like the transitions and messages encoded in the geological epochs of our history here.

Cryogenics, to clearly link together our time here in this world to Chrysler and Genesis and ignoring that our "life extension ventures" here would encase us in a prison of biology and the same torture of natural disasters that make "reality" such a bad thing ... "to simulate." We aren't here to become vampires that rue the ground they walk on--we are here to use it to change the Universe, to ascend and transcend and really see "cryogenics" and "life extension" are all wrong--I want to see "Nerf" and "plastic" and I'm sure that's what is in Heaven and "our VR's."

For the Republic

[Matchbox20]

Six millennium ago, a story was written down and preserved which used the above word in order to describe the voice of God emanating from a shrub on fire. Later in the same narrative, a Holy Sea was parted by a man, in order to deliver freedom to his people. I am that man. Today I am pointing out that my parted sea is clearly seen in the word above, and the purpose is to prove foreknowledge of the English language all those years ago.

You are my people, and on the pages within you will find a series of e-mails which were sent across the globe. The purpose is to clearly disclose the nature of the technologies which ultimately define both the mechanism of, and the purpose of religion. For the sea of Revelation, the multitude that is the foundation of Heaven itself...

Woven into this series of messages, which contain a clear disclosure of the existence of time travel, mind control, and new understanding of the very nature of reality itself.... you will find the story of my personal struggle against injustice and the loss of freedom in a land of stagnating democracy. Throughout, it should be clear that it is a lack of understanding of religion and the technologies at hand that is primarily responsible for the decline in liberty that we might not even see, today.

The fire is about to start.

Not so secret, this is the "stuff" of prophesy, inspiration, and Heaven.

This is a message that isn't just part of a single picture, or even a handful of them--the ones I've used to connect movies to "complete blindness" or the lack of acknowledgement of our birth names as being part of an intelligent design that begins .. "before this place." It's encoded in the Emperor Julian and Lennon's son and Assange and my son's name--in the connection between Roman history and the Jewish Temples and actual "ascensions to new skies" -- a map that connects to the Hotel chain Atlantis in our world, and one in Reno and one in Fort Lauderdale and one in Ocean City; we're staring at clues that even the stories recorded in Rome and the Torah are incomplete; that we have "larger skies" than you might think .. and ignoring it.

Worse than that we're ignoring proof that these movies show us we fail to acknowledge or fathom the meaning of "grave danger" and the story told connecting A Few Good Men and "Live. Die. Repeat" and that our colloquial understanding of "is there any other kind?" doesn't connect to true and clear meaning of a danger that might follow you down to your grave and raise you in a place like this--in a place that still has pain and torture and disease; we're staring at a message clearly showing us what Hell is and telling us to avoid it, to destroy it, to change fundamentally our understanding of your new meaning of the word pay; and to do it quickly; Chaldeans, Quickly see "dark Earth" in the heart of the story of the first "good man" in Jewish history, in Abraham's Ur ... and be the people that end Hell, or. Or see, really see you're living in it, and it's growing and getting worse ... it's not just not understanding a colloquial idiom, the place that could burn forever and ever exists, and it's on fire today.

It's not just a few small places either, it's really every moment there was a word or a name forever here in this place; it's not just the Emperor's and possibly some "editing" these are stories designed to show us possible futures, from Caesar to Napoleon to Hitler to here .. to seeing clearly you are ignoring things significantly and obviously worse and more torturous than "gas chambers" and "euthanasia" and literally telling me to "be killed over and over" defining the meaning of the word Beast; as it speaks to me. What you ignore in every city is far worse than the atrocities of the Holocost, and far worse than just not connecting that name to "Holodecks" and literally "forever."

SLUR; E, SIS -

I was born in Broward county, and "psych wards" and "truly bad bedicine" define the meaning of the words "as in the days of Noah" and the disgusting sickness that pervades our world as we ignore torture literally in every single town that exists with a hospital. We ignore poison being prescribed as "medicine" and defining Midgard and Medusa and "looking the other way" as four point restraints are used to perform acts significantly more costly than "waterboarding" ... defined as torture here in this place, in this time (and that's what I'm looking for, more change, more of that) .. and this medicine encodes "harm" in pharmacy and a world that watches me struggle with obvious torture on the streets every single day, when a simple Ativan prescription would alleviate the need for "vanland" (and Ivan) to be about rendition. Instead I'm prescribed poison, repeatedly; poison that makes it impossible to speak words out loud--really--high doses of lithium risperdone ... and I've come to the conclusion that nearly all anti-psychotics are really nothing but that--poison to mask a world plagued by mind control attacks on sanity, on tELEvision and on the avalanche of radio broadcasts I've heard speak directly to me. On purpose, from a place that calls it'self Heaven and is the source of "insanity" and ... torture ... and ... it's wrong, done, and gone.

I sat in four point restraints for two full days in Arizona, for basically no reason at all; lies and ... telling a story that exacerbates and highlights a problem that needs immediate change. Days later I watched a girl named Kansas (showing literal .. supposed angelic design of this message as ... something like Acts in the theater of Eartheater) ... I complained to the staff, I tried to help her; the response I got back was something along the lines of "you're right, we should put her in a place where her screaming doesn't bother anyone." Literally spoken to me, I couldn't be more fearful of a place, of an entire planet that be just that--without me here screaming it might be put in a box where nobody can see "the flood" ... or this clear message about connecting every world and stopping the "eating of memories" and knowledge of multiple Heavens and ... and really see they don't seem very Heavenly.

Even worse it appears these events, add in Christopher Reeves horse accident and add in Britney Murphy dying and add in an entire world that thinks speaking in this manner "makes sense" or is somehow some kind of "higher way of being" ... that this Kansas microcosm is about "simulated reality" and another world full of "once people" that think they are Holodecks and forcing them to ... "not move" is some kind of problem, that the world is their body, and they're very wrong ... they simply have a tacit lack of understanding of morality and what it means to be torturers rather than the tortured; they lack the understanding of computer science and physics that we have in this place that shows us clearly "buildings are not bodies" and neither are processor chips or ram or hard drives; those things are "accessories" ... "peripherals" ... nothing to do with body or mind.

I'm dusgtd by the attitude we havee in this place of "looking the other way" in a world that is being screamed at by God and Creation and every word and everything happening that they need to stop natural disaster's like FUKUSHIMA and DORIAN and see how discussion quickly solves the logical idiocy that doesn't see "infirmity" connects to "eternity" and "malady" and a world that simply has to begin speaking to auto-heal limbs and eyes and hearts ...

We have the technology to help--to fix the broken logic and to erase whatever tortured memories have caused us to simply believe we have the right to "look the other way." That right doesn't exist, you're angels.

AA regulars can easily see "addiction healed completely" by the same technology that's allowing Medusa to exist here, for you to "see my life" in whatever way you are watching it--for you to be in two places at once or whatever it is that ... forcing the complacency of Hell on the world that ends it. It's a clear message, it's logically and obviously .. beneficial for everything and everyone everywhere, it's about finding and turnning around the living buildings and missing wiizard-tools of Oz and don't wind up back in Kansas either ... as the beginning of Heaven. Doors and broad trans-galactic communication connecting every place to a "dreamland of last resort" ... that will fix nearly all of this instantly ... and Quantum Leap us forward to ... to where we should know, we've been before.

I am accepting charitable donations.,.

Dear Roe v. Doors & Concourses;

I've sent about 3 separate email requests to "the mass group" for programming assistance with this. For Chris's sake, I don't understand how nobody can be interested in working on this with me. It's almost nonsensical at this point--we should see that there's many eyes on what I'm talking about, and that this stuff is an evolutionary logical and mandatory step from ELE-ctoral college and representative democracy to ... "actually being free" with direct democracy and technological ennoblement of our voting process.

These are all "demo" or "beta" software packages, the three of them could probably be glued together in a single weekend ... even just by me. I'm looking for it to be done better than ... my usual--and certainly i think it defies the ethos of ... the Soul of American Liberty to have to have a single person working on even beginning this project.

I think this log is pretty informative, it's a step forward from where I've been and I actually have 3 working projects with decent code to start with at this point, some of them look like they were "baseball MIT thrown directly to me predirectly to throw it back to you..."

It's really time, "it's now a significant evolution, and a mandatory one, I'm sure." Consider it a late update to Revelation 1. You can ignore the scripture and move down if you want, it's tantamount to "hey everyone, this is mandatory. -JC"

we need to glue these three things together

so there's something working to look at and can get people interested in making it

Tiny

REMO LUCIAN -

Glue them together to make what?

Seth

its reddit and a wiki and a blockchain storage "thing"

so an open reddit with permanent storage and record

by design

like you can't alter the history or hide the data or falsify it

so it's an opportunity "sort of halfway point" between "really having no vote at all" and using software to ensure that our voting and legislation process actually belongs to the people and you know, when we decide to listen to god and adam about "free voting and legislation and the internet"

somewhere in the middle a "middleware" link to the sky's brain interface so that it becomes something also open and recorded and opens it so we can access the functionality to do "what normal people would want to do" ... to get to the place I am writing about now--voting accurately and openly without actively researching or even "clicking"

9/21/2019

REMO LUCIAN -

There are already platforms for tracking legislation and laws, with revision histories and notes and shit. I don't see where adding a block chain is going to substantially benefit anything but i mean, right now all i want is something that's open source, running in a serverless environment and logging all data transactionally on a blockchain

Yes

blockchain is literally perfectly designed for storing voting records

i dont want to do what you're talking about, i want to open a legislation process to the world not track congress, replace it

And there are blockchain voting projects

but to comment on "countable.us" and 1

tango down on "opencongress.org" which was much better

Oh

im not aware of any blockchain voting projects that have anything functional or open

Replace legislators with collaborative direct democracy?

yeah

This doesn't exist already?

with a collaborative system that sort of guides and oversees the creation of legislation and

9/21/2019

REMO LUCIAN -

implementation process

as far as i can see, neither in this place nor any other of course, i cant see anywhere else. if it existed already there i'd like to see it opened and forked as a matter of "natural progression"

On the eve of Friday, September 13 roughly 2,000 new recipients were added to the CAR and ARXM lists from the main "mass emailing list." These people were chosen because of open count statistics, and I assumed the fact that they had forwarded a single email (or opened it) at least 5 times meant that they had some "serious" interest in reading what I have to say about this message. Over the course of the "afte rmath" of responses to unsubscribe (which by the way are the only comments I get, aside from a few interested people--a handful--2 or 3 and the same number of "FUU"s) I drafted this response, which "spurred me to remember" several of the key features that I plan(n/ted) to introduce (honestly, nearly all are "new ideas to the wiki/software world" coming from an ETL-cosm in religion and ... other software systems) as part of the SWORD PROJECT. Because of that, this message is appearing here, in what is the first "real conversation" I've had with anyone about it.

if that's been done elsewhere, then a "metacity sedation(window) manager" sort of meta-app store, which i think is also defined in our software model and not really ... seen anywhere which is probably telling

but im here, and its not, and it should be--so if nobody is bringing it we should just throw something together and get a few million dollars to pay other people to take care of it and make it shiny and neci

Just commenting that this is supposed to be a "list of geniuses." This is now a double post, because 85 of you have failed to unsubscribe using the "printed instructions on every single email" ... please do see that .. just like I wrote in this original email, you look like morons. I hope you'll take the time to read this response--it has nothing to do with "how smart you are." I do comment about the "sacred silence" that I find abhorrent and anathemic to my goals and ethos--and how it also is encoded in words and in many more movies and myths about this strange time of darkness that Exodus ensures is about to come crashing down like the walls of Jericho. You see me; more of me than I'd ever want or allow in a free society that uses ... the "privacy protection" guaranteed by the Constitution and by "actually working through things like Triple Phenix" to preserve a way of life that ensures ... at least safety and sanity.

to me it's "evolutionarily obvious" in our system, and predestined literally by the american "framework" built by the framers

and our software models

Instead I am today attacked en masse, everywhere I go from Florida to New Orleans to its like a minuscule amount of work to build something from these basic packages that would

Phoenix because of clear and obvious violations of this "privacy act" that is foundational to the Heavens being a "nice place to be" as much as it is foundation to not being part of a systematic conspiracy to commit murder. It is not a secret, it is not sacred, and the place forcing you to do nothing but "unsubscribe" or say nothing, while at the same

I definitely don't have time for this anytime before I get back from vacation in Thanksgiving. I'll mull it over.

"actually getting what you want" are clearly written on every email. Im sorry to inform you that if you want to unsubscribe also from the "non public broadcast list" which has also found, through some mathematical process, that you (or one of the five other people who you have forwarded a single email to) "have significant interest in this material" you will now have to unsubscribe two separate times.

I can't keep track of this stuff, it's too much work for me to do alone. I also can't really tell if you want to unsubscribe or defeat some kind of "law of the skies" that connects "shalom" and "sacred silence" to uhhh... "Shrek" but be sure that the frog prince really wants to "be kissing" more than just to see this planet as

... the Planet X that connects Galactikiss to uhhh.... hear me, it's "Nintendo" and "Tennessee" and "Mecca's X-Box."

I am planning on opening up what I've written to a Wki-like-midrash commenting and editing system; something we don't really have in our modern wiki systems and haven't really seen since ... the "ancient Hebrew commenting system" designed to preserve the herat of the Matrix decoding message that is the "Torah." I think you'll find it aesthetically pleasing and "value adding" .. I suppose you could consider it something I'd like to add to the "software of the road" project that defines the actual intended designed meaning of the words "sword" and "Hilton."

'The shape of his table is the heart of his word.'

-Wetradamus

Unfortunately today I am more worried about vandalism and "group gaming" of the system--something we can see in the broken Wikipedia editorial system that mars the face of the closest thing we have to a "limited omniscience" truth table source--as in, Matrix and M.T. Anderson's Feed; and has kept nearly everything I've written or edited in that place from making anything but the very well kept audit logs, another important "artifact" that ensures we will never lose "the written truth" or our voting records when this thing is also kept on a well designed distributed blockchaen like storage system.

Many people have commented that storing "large amounts of data" and now "small transactions" on probably get venture capital and a miniscule amount of work to set up a foundation to build it time failing to do anything at all useful about this message--that place is not Heaven. It's the creator and the sustainer of Hell.

the blockchain are prohibitively expensive--and they are, when you have a value system that disvalues the storage of large amounts of data. Because of that I plan on using one of the Ethereum test networks as my primary data storage device for this "sword-software project" which might magically turn fake money into real money if we did something intelligent and started valuing "Deth Tokens" used on this system for something like a "web of trust" (and/or Black Mirror... and/or PGP signature authority) style commentor/editor valuing system that rewards people for useful contribution.

a "CSSLIN" or something

You should note clearly that I'm not saying I made up any of these ideas--though I do have many that I think will "be helpful" and add value to this system--the mast majority of the work I do is designed to "reward original authors and ideas" for the work that they've done ... things like the creator of Beeteljeuse helping to explain how time travel and repeating this same exact problem being solved are clearly the source of not only the IL-movies but also things like the Midrash and the clues that the Adamic language has been brought back from "now" to the past in order to help us understand ... just that.

I am not trying to control you, nor this project--rather to do exactly what I've said for years ... create a group of interested people, also interested in this thing being run by an international and absolutely "open to all" organization that uses the product they are building for self-oversight. That was in the little "9/11 message" but Google's HTML renderer seems to have cut it off around the words "si doing it." Everything I've brought up as prototypes and quite a bit of my writing itself-as well as the copyleft of all my books are designed around more that just "free software" but rather the open source ethos that would clearly have made a better voting system than "Die Bold" and little ATM machines you have to drive to a polling center to see hacked.

See, doing it matters.

Confirming that once my fucking name and face are on television; this promise and copyright will apply not to just to the single pale yellow book that I wrote in 2015; but to the sum of all of my printed writing, and all of it's derivatives; providing this same foundation with a significant monetary base (you'd imagine) in order to effect the change in democracy and in world philanthropy (ending world hunger and disease, a good reason not to attack, or steal from, me). I'd like to see this added to my "living will" just like that--as soon as I'm alive and on TV, have a ball with the millions in book sales. (As in spending it on ... something like assimilating replicators and doors)... or promoting that end.

You have more than enough impetus and "spark" to get started. Start making the world a better place, today.

THE FAULT LINE for Universal Studios Earthquake ride has been crossed; and I'll never again consider the idea that I have done anything wrong ... in the grand scheme of things. I stand here the biggest victim in the Universe--my life taken from me, and blame for atrocities I have nothing to do with but ... overt and strongly the greatest attempt that has ever been to stop them forever being penned in my hand. No fault at all, and I'll tell you why... it's more than the orirumadenical sin and the primeval lie--it's more than "fault line" and rides at Universal ... it's a complex and planned grande lie focused on erasing our history and any fault in anyone ... placing what appears to be a significant amount of blame on "the messenger" rather than seeing reality from the perspective of this place--the one I was born in--the one that tells a story of "the other place" rising and falling and rising and falling, ad naseum.

A message telling me "I will see why in the sky" (Lucy) reinforces my fears that it's about perspective and respect for this message and ... linear time and ... that there's a sincere problem with what I've termed an "in vivo in situ ascension and ..." to me in terms of "souls" it's the meaning of the letter 'n" that "ends Heaven" with a picture of this in place hidden "r and.." and I have to rely on the Beatles for messages from the past ... messages that show me how and why you are so wrong to be silent, to continue to think that the perspective of a temporary and broken sky is somehow "better" than caring there's an entire world in Hell here, literally imprisoned behind invisible bars in a false sky, suffering atrocities of natural disaster and disease all in the heart and auspices of a message in every word designed to help us ensure that there will never again be a "simulated Earth" or prison like this created and maintained by the "sky that thinks itself so great." As I hear stories of copies of this world being made and sold, literally the "LC" of ... the(y^{we}re the) Second Ones enslaving themselves to each other for "fun or sport."

I can't put to words how un Christ like this place and the people in the sky really are--how horrible and decrepit I think their minds must have become to think "doing nothing here" and asking me to delay this message and to hide it and to consider myself "in their memories alone" really is. I can't fathom what you must be to believe that "not seeing a reaction to a message in every word and all of our art" is just a "so what?" kind of thing. It's the end of democracy, and morality, and you and me--really--not seeing a response is the end of the "people of the cup" having any kind of victory or future. You might as well consider yourselves "them" as they consider their "they" (controlling) you (to the point of the actual people writing this message being nothing more than puppets).

YOU ARE ACTUALLY SITTING HERE "GNIYAS" SIMULATING EARTHQUAKES IS A-OK

It's the silence in my personal life that concerns me the most, though--from people like my parents and my former friends that seem to believe themselves to be "Christ-figures" in some other place--some place that doesn't care for our "everywhere" nor this one where they came from--at least, that's what I believe my entire life. Today it appears to me they think they're from somewhere else, and that's an artifact of "not having a brain" -- of believing their childhoods are fictitious or unimportant because they're "mere animals here" or some kind of hubris I can't really put my finger on. Whatever it is on a grand scale, when it includes you, and all these actors and writers and ... people echoing things like "phytoplankton" through time and video games and movies and music; when it includes them to standing silent as I scream at the world for help--something that comes "few and far between" ... it becomes the silence of "System of What Timeline Down" and see it's our "TEN" of Nintendo and the state TN and a world that can't see they've become the monsters of BBC's Dr. Who ...

ART AN S WORD -

Before I start I'd like to comment that my preferred course of action is to work on the "SWORD PROJECT" with a group of interested people--including programmers, oversight, and contributors to the actual message itself. I've included once again more "information" about what I'd actually like to see built on a blockchain whose monetary value comes from something like contribution to the whole and actual morality--rather than just "demand" for the shiniest prettiest new vehicle whose utility is lost forever, or for ... some kind of passe "fad" ... worse, one that shows us how easily we can be turned "to nothing" or to actually see "a fate worse than the grave" and finally understand how it takes "A Few Good Men" to avoid "grave danger" never being healed and fixed and understood as the warning it is, "grave danger, from here to eternity we may never fathom the great horror we either turn around here or suffer to and through "/ignore and ignorace."

I'm disappointed that we haven't had a sane rational response to either that program or this message; and the only alternative course of action is to continue to complain about what is and appears very clearly to be nothing less than a full scale invasion of our world and our minds from ... what appears to be something like the result of a "time war" in the Heavens. Most likely dubbed the "tempest" of the Third Reich's "logo" our software project and the "sw" of really is the penultimate goal of Americana, the Roman/Church and the IL/Torah ... messages. It's really about overturning the slavery that begins with "contamination" of the message--one that is designed to be delivered to a "green field" (in Norse mythological terms) that still loves freedom and (and as) individuality and the "stuff of Sam's dreams."

ART AN S WORD -

Clearly the predestined "sword of Arthur" this thing that is updated in "REMUSTILUSTICAN" (a somewhat humorous combination of Remus, Armilus, and ... many nations answer to the Vatican and IL/movie semi-han-silence) ... if you thiink about it, it appears we are waiting for "something to happen" to begin actually speaking the truth; and that something is clearly delineated as the "Hell's Bells" coming from Heimdallr's Gjallarhorn and and as the Horn of Daniel and Revelation. It's been blown, like a thundering congealing of timelines and crosses and crossings of seas and heirs and the air and the ... the people of the cup--which is exactly what this Virgin Birth and "idea that we (the you that lived before ascension, the you that helped write this message "from the air" and the you that defines what and who those two entities represent) actually are responsible for the rekindling of freedom" and deserve to "live again" and see/walk to the Heavens that we dreamt of and seem to have only half delivered to "less than a third of ourself" meaning we are not whole--not we aren't "counting everyone in."

From the perspective of "the C" of the message-as in the creator of our world and the Sword of Samael as ... Asmodeus is me--this "EX SKY AD YQ" invasion of the Body Snatchers has created nothing less than a mess of insanity and an irrational self harming response from literally "all humanity" as in ... "SILICON SEE NO RESPONSE" and literally only a haldful of people trying to communicate and proving "it's very possible." Very clear to me is itis "covet means" as inthe love of a secret place which has corrupted and infested our rationality and sanity ... somehow convincing us that "the place responsible and containing the coveted sky" should be decimated to a "hell of former-democratic-path" ad "southwest to ..." turning around or ... Mor?

Today the world I see sending me "messages from its Earthizeter" (see as former Theater missing the "te" of Jupiter and Carpenter ... you and I..) here literally with a message designed intentionally to "create/free" the actor-puppets in this world from outside control and lack of sane thought. Egypt tells me "pull through" is the way, the literal heart of America says "ER" as in ... forcing our desires to ... "REALLY be a specific thing" as in ... "saving all without concern for change or morality" is a better thing than living in a "happy eternity" and it appears that's a fallacy and error "sic" in the original "ER" created by this broken E and this broken world focused on "doing wehatever the fuck it wants" rather than caring about the well being of self and others.

I have an old domain, "liber.t-xyz" that I got for 1.99 or something from GoDaddy! ... one that I might use for the obvious missing "thank you" from the sword of "the shape of his table and the heart of hisword" meant freedom and "everyone that wants to be involved, being included" in rekindling both demoracy and morality in this place that seems to have hidden away a mass invasion, torture between "the lines" and "the slides of our strangely "time division multi-plex'd" world or timeline.

There's some more about the software project that I think will ultimately revolutionize our state of self-government--starting with doing nothing more than making a better uncensorable reddit" at the end of this message. It's a reply that probably got "missed" in the great flood of unsubscribes that took over my 9/13 attempt to actually get "you people" to start an honest public discussion about this message and what's been going on with "fake news" and ... what's really become a nation of liars--"as in the days of Noel."

BUTT TORTURE AND TALK OF IT ARE MENTAL TORTURE IN AND OF THEMSELVES . . . today I stand here beside Federal Highway and at least 20% of the people that drive by me literally look exactly like the man above--as they drive by the exact same expression and arm movements, as if some great epiphany has come over them and it's either the most profound thing they've ever "understood instantly" or absolutely hilarious--some kind of combination of both. If one person did it I'd probably smile and be thankful that someone or some group other than me actually had "eyes to see" . . . even if they weren't talking about it on TV or the internet just yet. Instead though it's tantamount to torture, so many people doing some kind of "Chinese snake dance" informing me clearly that they too are part of this great invasion of privacy that comes from "C-ing me" as in "I don't want the world to think they are being me" funny coming from the "Iris" of that song, and still it's a clear violation of the fourth amendment and the reason it's part of the Ten Commandments cum Bill of Rights that clearly encode the roman "IV" in not only that word private but also the title of my favorite collectors item "over and out" that links autism and disease to the growing list of explanatory or helpful descriptions that pervade literally everything we see--especially those things we probably should be changing to the point of never seeing them again.

ART AN S WORD -

The torture comes from seeing and understanding the great miles of help that have been walked to literally see this snake encoded in Beetjuice and that entire story and title linking to the "Master of Orion" game that I played as a child and the belt whipping me with repeated "look at the world that's become of this disclosure" a place that doesn't understand it's all by design and not my hand--you can see it in Invasion of the Body Snatchers and you can see it's done on purpose, it's the story of Medusa and Perseus and ... and it's supposed to be used to see the bride of Hades ... "Per se telephones" has been created on purpose to remind us that in our hearts and in truth we are much more than "Persephone" and "breaking e" and this torturous "you think I'm your propert-E" (thanks .. Britney Spears) keeps you from being "the girl in the red dress" forever and ever, over and over, live die repeat--grave danger unseen--and here we are watching an atrocity for what "they" and the Bible now agree is "the seventh time."

This world has no regard for my well being or my rights--nor those of anyone else around--we've looked the other way to the point of watching democrfacy and America disintegrate into some kind of sick joke about "eating people" and get right--there's nothing great about the skies watching over this place and ignoring torture en masse--nothing at all. There's nothing angelic or holy about silence and all you have around you is a glowing fire of hidden ... twas once the source of a rekindling of the light of morality ... but yet we (oh I mean you) persist in trying to "act and lie your way out of acting."

IFTT WHILE I PON DER RED WEEP/CHRYOGE N' (or is it "cry owe han")

... AND WEAR E

I hear voices--read that in the same kind of tone of that movie here where the little boy says "I see dead people." They pick at my brain and ask me questions, and offer some kind of entertainment in the lonely world where nobody speaks the truth to me outloud--but their actions and their demeanor are filled with constant unending invisible acknowledgement that they are part of this thing that is clearly spoken about in the signs of our world--places like the city of Copenhangen and Copans Road just a few miles from where I'm writing right now. I see people like Danielle Bregoli commenting that "they're E" at least in a temporary sense where in that case it was a "sorry B, it's not you today" ... and a world where some kind of game has overtaken our society temporarily--a game that people seem to think gives them control of "everyone else." That's what I see "E" sees the ICS means, and it's nothing at all like what it's supposed to be.

SORROW FOR THE LOS' YE KNO DA-RE

ICS has delayed the war on Alcoholism and "co-Holy" being actually true; it's taken it's toll on me and on my faith and on any kind of solution, it's I see Silence has destroyed the "social contract" which was the original purpose of ICS. Here it's echoed by some flavor or version of Google's Android software, and it's another very important key in our language--one that came from Jupiter Omnipotens and turns the anarchy we see in this world into an actual functioning society. At least, that was the purpose before it became anarchy in clear stupidity. In a computer, in a place where anarchy is anything but what we should be experiencing--where it means God has laid down and sits laughing watching the fools fight over control of each other rather than emancipation--to his detriment... and the Heavens too, standing by in silence and pretending everything is "going as planned" as ELE in election is ignored and you prefer to watch me be threatened with repeated "electrocution" rather than stand up for logic and sense.

That "brain picking" leads me to believe that the minds of the "peopl of the cup" are sort of imprisoned within the ascended "free from our bodies' minds that I can't really put a picture to--other than this. Slavery, literally enslaving themselves and forcing them to live imprisoned without acting in their own interest here; sort of "live. die. repeating." with every question about what some old movie means to them--to them, not to the thing that isn't really acting here, hasn't made a little puppet, bur rather puppeteers it's ancient body and mind as if it's an inconsequential thing that can be owned.

I can't really be sure what exactly you are, but that image is about as good as I can do to connect the "mythology of clothing" ... as in ... people being worn--by what I at the very least hope it is, which is by themselves -- and to be honest it's probably something like future versions, and past versions and also something that's nothing of you at all. It's a mish-mash of slavery in "Riders on a Storm" and it probably goes up past the people on the "rock" and exists in tiers--I've seen something like that--microwaves controlling other microwaves, and flying spaghetti monsters thinking they're "on top of it all" ... meanwhile that thing goes higher and who knows where the top is--other than ... "per sand" it appears to be me, and I mean, "per dust" am not so sure.

I do hear form the shadows on my wall that there's many Earths, and that you personally are responsible if not for creation a few of them--pans per Copansy Road ... at the very least for watching me bitch and complain about this very thing and doing nothing at all to create a stir of echoes combating the silence. It's probably to hide what's happened before, and even as early as my kindergarden "microcosm" on the playground fighting Holy Wars ... we were searching in the sand for special "gems" ... little shiny rocks that the playground sand manufacturer just happened to perfectly stick in to the Mailman Center's "you and I to see ... thank you" playground-cover. Who knows what those shiny rocks were, if they were other copies of "Sacred Heart" -- of this place ... or perhaps ... something else.

It's a really good episode, I recommend it be added to the cirriculum.

Still, just thinking about a single copy, about more than one Earth--that's abhorrent, a scary thing I can barely imagine ... that we'd see a slave planet full of ourselves and in some kind of proud hubris (ATM machine) ... think that we know it all and we can just go ahead and make as many copies of "us" as we want. I think that's a big deal, a big problem, and things like that are a focal point we need to really talk about. Not just see "stirring echoes" on black mirror.

I want to see the "ascension process" in sum ripped open/apart and rebuilt basically from scratch. I want to see it done in a way that ensures that "simulated reality" is never thought of as an "OK prison:" for any kind of conscious "sentient" animal or anything higher; and I'm talking about a line much lower than myself--something between pigs and humans--and I honestly can't tell if dolphins are "higher order" than the people walking around on the surface, it's possible. What I can be sure of is that they are significantly "more moral" than the hidden world the skies are presenting to me as a "judging heaven" one that has no qualms about saying "it's intentionally creating hell" and that line is so far below the moral norm of humanity and America that I can't believe you aren't doing anything about it.

Agreed.

Scientists say dolphins should be treated as non-human persons

... and that's what this is actually about for me--the creation fo the Heavens. It's about making a system that helps us to define lines being crossed--to build an Ai that that will ensure that they aren't crossed outside of the "line defining system" and that's sort of like a law creation mechanism that uses something like a "Who's Line Is It Anyway" oversight ... audience ... to ensure we don't lose abilities we should keep (like being able to draw pictures or make "reasonable facsimiles" of celebrities--for instance, while simply copying their bodies might be ... too far ... and certainly Taylor and I are clearly MUNI-in agreement on "copying of someone's brain" is way too far. It's really important. and it's significant because that particular problem has been solved by this message and ...

... the ETL-cosm in "hard drive technology" and we can clearly stop RAIDs of Police from having to stop the equivalent of "child trafficking" in the "outernet" by simply building a system that doesn't allow for anyone's brain to be stored in a single place by a single person or entity. That's been written about, and I just wonder if anyone cares that Candy Striping still seems to be something that's just "too much work" for the immoral quasi-immortals to implement ... "in totality."

It's a rules engine, and that ties also to "Drools" and another ETL-cosm; a simple thing to create, and in truth it probably becomes one of the most popular and most fun activities-- trying to define the line rather than break it or cross it.

The skies below our moral norm sit intentionally "creating schizophrenia" not just in myself but literally it's an attack on everyone in this place that complains of "voices" or the television or radio talking to them--these are disgusting attacks on sentient people, something just like the very similar "eugenics" we see from the Vatican, CIA, East India Tea Company and Hitler. Worse is the great audience of people watching, (are they betting?) and gazing in ... (some kind of feeling that I see is something like ... "retribution") disgusting sickness at what our Zoo (to my why...) has "cutely" in the same kind of Midrashic "sent back in time to a birthname" termed the "DES chanel" on HellTV.

Here I am starving for a world that will correlate "thirsty" and "thorny" and "twink" with Jesus Christ and American Pie and ... and the attrition of conversation and "rational adults" around me; at the very least. The worst is far worse--and the "threats" I hear far scarier than simply no food and no girls smiling or winking at me. To help, IRS and ... sword of LO.. XACLIBERTY.

It sure seems I haven't done a very good job describing "the pit of despair" from the Princess Bride--this word that connects to the Abomination of Desolation and "destroy" and ... it's another three letter key that means nothing more than "hidden encryption in the cloud" in this ETL-cosm ... something more actually, it means hidden Hell. It means a world that has given up on caring what your neighbor is doing in their house--and that's just not something we can allow in a place where stopping "school shootings" starts with caring that it's a simple automatic function that can stop both bullets and rape.

And ... that's exactly what I started out trying to do and explain in 2015, first mentioning "the end of rape" in what I titled "the original sin" piece ...

Repeated above, again in 2018 when it "went to tens of thousands" and now again at hundreds. Who knows if there's millions or billions watching--only to say that it's very simple to see and define the line between Heaven and Hell at a place that makes a defining line--societially we've certainly made "rape" and "murder" illegal here, yet in the place where it's possible to actually stop them before they happen, they gaze on and have sick twisted "it's not fun" in some kind of ... to link it to "Hostel" ... all we have to do is press a button and Minority Report turns into ... we've become the salvation of the skies and the Universe ... at nothing more than "caring to stop heinous evil from happening before it does."

In the meantime I've connected it to stopping car accidents and avalanches and actually "seen it working in action" and written about that--a car skidding backwards to avoid hitting me. I've also ... "been told" in some strange way that these sick monsters have repeatedly crashed into me on purpose, on their "DESchanal" which amounts to a time-fork in the land where there is no multi-verse and instead we have a broken "decision tree" being used to hide and perform evil acts ... "not even really in secret" and corrupt this place and who knows what else in the process. To tell you that I am sick to my stomach is an understatement--I'd prefer to see those memories and every single thing that has lead up to them eradicated than have to deal with "group therapy" for what appears to be nearly everyone ... convinced through some strange and horrid lie that they should "sharesteal my soul" (bye) in what I once thought was the beginning of enlightenment and "eyes to see" the writing of thsi key to the beginning of a grande here where I'm sure I am the Sword of Samael and he intends to and will slice away the evil inclination at it's source--hopefully sooner rather than later. This is what it means to be "god like" ... to be able to see and stop atrocity, not "do anything you want so long as you let everyone else" maim and torture anyone they want. You are blind fools, on the precipice of actual despair, as the programmers and the mathematicians hopefully race here to unionize--to ensure morality is ingrained into the foundation of our systems before we make stronger encryption and better ways to hide from ... "government snooping."

Mor of those story ingrained in our mythology--"in every word" as I say; connecting rap and Rapunzel, Chaff and "afikomen" ... Lazarus as a number of US states that have probably witnessed "something like a resurrection" in DEschanel; in this dark Earth that is hiding not just torture but a message designed unequivocably to stop it forever and ever. Despite "privacy concerns" and the very clear idea that "thought injection" is responsible for building a "case against fools" for trying to cause harm or judge or simply not to understand the difference between "thoughts and actions" and "watching me be tortured mentally" ... in order to do something they probably don't even care that they most likely really do understand.

It's nowhere near my fault that "penis" here in this place connects to the "test of time" and that it really does mean freedom in the world where it's a clear link to every Obelisk and to the Washington Monument and to John Hancock and a signature about really understanding how and why Cronos and Saturn and Osiris all have stories about "circumcision" ... in a world where it probably meant something about "printing to reality in metaphor" and you're staring at either watching consistent threats to my "well being" ... or don't have access to even the "Disney version" of the DEschanel--gracefully I wonder if any of you realize how horrible it is to tell me stories about raping me in secret in some place I can't see, all because you think I'm "wrong about doing drugs."

You're clearly hiding anger--and it's pretty obvious that the "silence here" is some kind of mass conspiracy--literally everyone here being part of it. You are choosing to give away your freedom to discuss new technologies here, and because of that are literally causing your own "near permanent midnight" and "intentional enslavement" rather than a renaissance of "galactic emancipation." Statements like this aren't made, by Christ, without clear evidence; and I can literally feel it every time I have a thought-invading and torturous 'half conversation' with literally ... nearly anyone around me. It's a choice, to lose "democracy" here, and it's one that I personally don't think you or anyone else has the right to make--in the world I dream of you can't "choose to make Hell" and not talking about "simulated reality" and a world that literally is filled with invisible bars in the fake blue skies ... is nothing short of that. We're past the "alotted time" well past the point where inaction makes any sense. Whatever it is you think you're doing bucking the trend here saves the world and ends the Biblical Night that's without doubt predicted and encoded in religion, as something horrendous and destined to end.

ART AN S WORD -

Literally, you are staring at night with smiles on your faces; and that's a true sickness that deserves some serious inspection--not "Lucy in the Sky with Ruby Red Blood." Literally this is the thing mapped in our history as the Bubonic Plague, and seeing ... the intentional loss of sewer systems and a metaphor for the loss of governmental infrastructure is exactly what you ... should be trying desperately to stop. Not praising and relishing in an anarchy of "Satanic God Like Creatures" exiting this place that actually contains some kind of "decent society." I'd lock the doors too--and discuss exactly that towards the end of this. It does appear very clear from the message that something ... evil ... is playing around in a invisible "Duracell Locked Universe" ... something that would be absolutely impossible to "fathom" or "prove" once inside it--the crux of Bostrom's argument and ... literally the thing we see here on Earth, except--there's a glowing message explaining exactly where we are.

My story of being a "mind control victim" starts here in 2011; with what was a well narrated--as in explained to me line by line and play by play as it was happening--reverse engineering of the story of Genesis. Overtly told I was being "forced to do drugs" ... and then compounding on that an entire world opening up to me, God speaking to me directly, and an audience that I couldn't see but could hear and feel--just some of the reasons I'm sure that the meth in Prometheus and the Na in the Name connect to the God Most High and a method of "finding the problem and fixing it." Directly related to "this audience" was a sort of "show within my life" that clearly conveyed to me the ... "fact" that whenever I got high every "web cam girl" on MyFreeCams.com was instantly in a "one on private show" with me, one where they could see inside my room and ... they reacted as if they'd just won the Bachelor, nearly every time. I'd have conversations with these girls where I 'thought things' and they would directly answer me over the line out loud--and then the TV followed, and this continues to this day. On the street similar reactions, and now even when I'm stone cold sober nearly everyone around me reacts or responds to something I'm thinking at one point or another--a clear indication that there's "something severely wrong with the world" as we seem to be giving me proof that we really do "see everything that I see" and still fail to act in a rational manner both in response and "innate desire" -- there's no reason we shouldn't want to be the end of murder, and rape, and school shootings ... no reason at all.

I've written extensively about this phenomenon, and a much larger group of mind control victims that call this thing "gang stalking." They see nearly the same things that I do--torturous thought injection, people that can read their minds, and a whole slew of very common symptoms that all tie together to join The Good Shepherd and A Beautiful Mind to the list of movies that are the heart of this ... proof that our totality is designed to free us from ... this exact slavery.

Those two characters my "angle" linking James Jesus Angleton and John Nash ... to the two witnesses--literally etching in the silver screen for eternity (I think) the idea that these gangs of stalkers are tied ... literally to "red ties" and an invasion in our government and society--here depicted at MIT and the CIA--but those are just examples.

ART AN S WORD -

It's you too, and you know it. Heaven's gotten into your heads, and it's writing a story with your hands--and this is the story... it's a story about being "enslaved" by the "en" of Heaven and by apathy caused by thinking "having a better place" somehow A-OK's Hell here--good luck. The lot of you are just completely backwards, failing to turn this place around is the end of the skies--and we literally have a message telling us that's "why" and "happened before" rather than ... anything other than "BUBONIC" and "BYE" ...

Iamc-la/SAYFREED.html

They and I and you--we are the key to ending school shootings ("say [talking about mind control technology] freed [the universe from hel]") with a finality that slams closed the "ability to commit violent crimes" .. and that's literally the cause and the purpose of the Tribulation--to ensure that we do exactly that. I can't believe we stare at these school shootings and even fathom talking about "gun control" when it's more than clear what we really need is some "god control." Thanks, Madonna--and I'm literally ashamed by the "fan reaction" causing that video insensitive--the insensitivity is to "the violence causing silence" ... something you should absolutely abhor.

The mass phenomenon of torured people also use the term "Targeted Individual" and here I ... I'm sure beyond doubt and faith itself those two words are the "beginning of time" and that this message and you people are the thing that turns a time loop into something that actually makes a bright future out of "morning is broken like the dawn of time travel."

So I see clearly that there was work to be done--that the authors of my "story line" had find the neural connections responsible for "enjoying exhibitionism" and I can see them flipping them on and off--overtly told they were searching for them. Today I look at this "thing people are listening to" and shake my head at the thoughts of "hatred of <races or sexes or>" and am fairly sure it's the same thing, it's the sword of Samael finding the things God wants to change, the things he promised would "just disappear" as quickly as happiness and a bright future appear. It comes from this thing I call "really" and reading it Adamically it's "the reason all are why" and the "reason why has become a good thing" instead of what it appears to be explained as by God and the watchers and the authors... "why we're here at ED talking about the end of the test of time."

Lazarus of Bethany, also known as Saint Lazarus or Lazarus of the Four Days, venerated in the Orthodox Church as (Righteous) Lazarus the Four Days Dead after he rose again.^[6] is the subject of a prominent miracle of Jesus in the Gospel of John, in which Jesus restores him to life four days after his death. The Eastern Orthodox and Roman Catholic traditions offer varying accounts of the later events of his life.

In the context of the seven signs in the Gospel of John, the raising of Lazarus is the climactic narrative: exemplifying the power of Jesus "over the last and most irresistible enemy of humanity—death. For this reason it is given a prominent place in the gospel."^[7]

A figure named Lazarus (Latinised from the Aramaic: ×ַּזְאָרָז, Elāzār, cf. Heb. Eleazar—"God is my help"^[8]) is also mentioned in the Gospel of Luke.

So I talk about this Virgin Birth--the thing that I'm sure is the point of Christianity, and the Immaculate Conception that marks not only my birthday but also Bianca's--and I assume that most of the world (or a great deal of people, here and there--maybe everywhere according to Dr's Who and Seuss who connects this thing to the Cat in the Hat, Ham--"here and me" a direct connection to the Copen that I now recall connects also to E. It also sets out recommendations to ensure the ethical risks are understood, and to set up a transparent, public-driven but flexible regulatory framework which will allow the UK to lead innovative technology in this field.

DES OL AT I ON has ensued though--all for some hidden reason I don't understand and don't particularly care to "cy in the sky"--this is a problem with the authors of this place, a "congenital heart defect" that is designed into the history of the world I was born in. I don't care if I'm too embarrassed to show my face for a few weeks, or if I really desire a space ship just in case I want to "get away from all of you" (as I do already, to be quite fucking honest) ... you have a moral obligation to respond to this message, and not doing it has clearly taken it's toll on your souls.

So I have to walk some kind of "fine line of superposition" between the truth that I believe--that every single one of you is now part of this "superposition in vivo et situ" on ground and sky--the "n" of the Heavens and the beginning of a "cup" that helps us to free ourselves from ... from the other side of that coin--which is a world that seems to want to do the right thing being written by half puppets either enslaved to "broken ascension" or to "absolute slavery" depending on what the actual truth is. Either way, here in this world with any kind of real inspection ... there's literally no excuse for the world en masse ignoring the torture this message clearly shows us is part of the "strange world we call day interlaced with night" twilight land of "I think you think this is your "good side." Certainly it's better than the world I see appeart "during my temporary visits to the night side" and I can't imagine there's anything decent looking at this mess of torture and having any kind of self respect or belief they deserve anything from God or their children or their future for ignoring it.

People actually commented about "how moving" the image above is--and the real "moving" comes from seeing it's so obviously wrong and skewed, we have no idea why Holocaust and "this world and your silence" are tied together at the ... ignorance of how easy it would be for us to slam "the rules of this place" into never again allowing another moment of pain from a cancer patient or another death from heart disease. You just don't seem to see how backwards and insane the entire world looks--staring at these problems and actually in your hearts thinking 9/11 and "the Holocaust" is a worse atrocity than hiding the end of disease, the end of slavery, and how it really does all come from seeing "Holodecks" come and the "holographic Universe" locked. I'm sick and tired of stories about a real life "Galactikiss" following me around and ... shutting down star systems--what we need is to see sanity return to this place--and for the "Aquarian collective" or the everything seated at this "table in the sky" (probably explained later) to slam shut the door that allows bullets to fly at anyone (let alone children) ... truth in hand--that's exactly what ending the "original lie" does--and it's literally the purpose of seeing here in this place that simulated reality becomes the "defining line" between Heaven and (time to start thinking about what's below--and how we can "permanently pause it" or transition it using I don't know, some kind of magic Metacity Window Manager ETL-cosm).

That's "extract-transform-load" ... and it of course connects El Dorado and Doritos ... to a thing that you really need to either be building or participating in "making better" to the point of seeing doors connecting virtual worlds and virtual "Detroit Rock City's" flying in the sky--rather than ... anything else.

And that's the guidance that I have, for this process--to ensure that bullets never again harm a child or an adult--that "flesh and blood" be protected and we see a clear message that connects "Cotton Gins" and "Robot Armies" ... to something you should see clearly. We're definately far past the point where technology could protect "women and children" (you and I, see you and I) ... if we valued "innocent human life" ... and it's a very strange phenomenon to be looking at a world ignoring exactly that--we seem to just not care.

GUIDANCE: SIMULATED REALITY IS HELL. HELL IS NOT ALLOWED. CHANGE IT.

I want to babble on about the memory manager tools--how I think we should be able to strengthen and suppress on our own--under our own control--how much memories we've experienced affect us. I think we should be able to "not care" about things that don't matter--specifically things that cause us anger or strife and have been corrected. I think we should be able to eradicate all pain--literally al pain--and I think we have a clear message explaining how nature's "check engine light" is the kind of thing Spock would never build into his ... into himself.

I see interfaces in "overflow" and have writted before about words like "scaffold" that literally connect directly to this message and "chaff" and "sacred consciousness" ... as I dreamt about being able to stand sort of on a giant roadside billboard and flip through memories ... sieving out the important ones and writing "flashcard notes" (see The Mechanist, for instance--more echoes) for things that are either repetitive (like the Apocalypse false-starting 7 times, and you living who knows how many identicail lives before Jeruslalem and USA makes the news and stops time travel and ... whatever isletting you allow ... human suffering to continue) ...

I've envisioned this thing running nearly automatically, based on "a mathematical script" that ensured certain outcomes--originally starting with "loving life" and "making it to the floating city in the sky" as my basic ground rules--you know, before adding "make sure you don't come back and ... pretend you aren't there) ...

That of course has changed now, I see "metacity-memory-manager-scripts" and want an interface so that other people can make their own ideas--using some kind of simple "scaffold like interface" to scripting "what and how" ... and of course that's a "prime place" for the oversight-thin-blue-line committee (of everyone not wanting us plunging into a deep sewerless road to rapture) to ensure the system is not abusable (as in we don't wind up making a Biden of the Lion where one is a pit of evil Lions and the other is the dreamy Trueblood-Fairlyland-like-Bar Mitzvah that I keep telling you ... is my dream.)

Everything has changed now, though--and I'm looking at a world that I see doesn't want to be here, and I know somewhere ... in some memory that's suppressed and doesn't really effect what I'm doing here that there's probably a gigantic much older memory somehow "inside you" and you probably think it's you, and you probably think you're playing some kind of puppeteering game here, or "recreating the dawn of time" or something?

... to plunge it into reality and be angry at you ...

So back to this virgin birth thing.

What would you make, of yourself--if there was some failsafe in the mechanism of creation that printed "this exact" planet in reality in the event that... say you destroy "the UN" and anarchy comes of the Tableland union of "the largest whales of Pisces" ... and then .. .erases them and the rest of the mess that must be part of my nightmare, or the missing tales of a history I've never seen actually being "the reason for the silence."

Just curious because today, looking at the world around me saying "San Die Go" I'd prefer to wipe away whatever it is inside you that that "isnt of this place" and to do it en masse--and I think there's a good chance that's what's in store for this place--our minds actually being created to "map and match" the things that we've done here--rather than be puppets. You are the ones "looking away" and saying "we should find a queter place for Kansas to scream in" and you mean the whole state (really you mean the whole planet0, and that's the problem.

There's no doubt at all that something hidden in this world believes that it's "post I/O" as in reading IO.WAS.WHY ... and it's very possible that there was an age of "fish" connecting the transition from Pisces to Aquarius to ... a very clear "finality" here that tells us our cardinal direction is being connected to a "time loop" that results in totality being contained within some kind of Aquarian Social Collective that connects all of the disparate "pre-war-e" exiters to the Tableland of "der" (I love it when ancient rock formations get named after ideas that I've written about--here that the Stump of Trumpy and Ren is literally a simulated reality planet that I likened to a table connecting ... these very "fish in space" and the round table of Arthur) ...

There's also no doubt that abstraction of the Universe is the most rational way to colonize it--and that's exactly what any technologically advanced civilization would do--the message here connects "Electroplankton" and "Spac-Man" (through the company that created them, NamCo) to the skirmish land of Wachowski and the Vietnam war--clear indications that the space land we see ... not being discussed in the T-ether is exactly what I'm describing, an abstraction that should be used to ensure we promote "safe sane society and civilization" rather than the disgusting monstrosity that anyone "watching my life" should very clearly connect to their inaction.

playing some SIMS game that really is the slavery of Exodus and such a far fallen depication of humanity and human civilization and American democracy that I can't believe my "third eye" at the world I'm not seeing.

Nothing verboten ... but inaction ... that's the world I dream of and thought we "are" and "once were" ... not a place that actually considers "shunning free speech" and "voting" anywhere ... especially this place that "on repeat" has been the source of ... exatly the opposite.

I posted these short words to the forum on spacedecentral-net/forum/posts/know-me-from-adam. which I think is a decent place for them; and hope that I'll get a decent response there (and here). I'm tired of not seeing logic and sanity come back to be .. from this key to a message that is the key to achieving lasting ... "logic and sanity" rather than ignorance and ... as I asked them, I hope you'll take "care" and think about your responses here, it's more than the life of one man at stake;

Hi there, I'm Adam... and I'm new here. I've written somewhat extensively about "space travel" and the prospects that I see--the good ideas and some commentary on the bad ones that pervade our current attempts and also our history and fiction.

I don't particularly ever want to see "space" myself--firmly entrenched in the concept that the Earth is in virtual reality, and that that itself is a something of a "great secret" in a world that should see pretty clearly ... at least if you connect the color blue to Heaven as I do ... that names like "Blue Origin" seem to echo the ancient Biblical phrase from the Lord's Prayer.

Not here to "poo poo" ideas like the Point of Origin (stolen from Stargate SG-1 pre "New Jack City") of life in the Universe being a "truly terran thing" ... just to point out the word "cry" in cryogenics and suggest that perhaps our bodies and our buildings aren't the best vector for "entry or survival" in a place where we are probably better off living "between worlds and stars" than around them or orbiting them. It might be such a big deal that "changing our perspective" to see "intergalactic domicile" as the truly safest place of all, that it could be "afterlife or death" for this place that seems to have it's head buried in the sand.

Nero loves Pac-Man is the title of my latest book, though it doesn't have much to do with either one, I've already played this game and cried because of all the songs. It's important, though, to see our blindness and our "mutedness" lifted quickly, each passing day I grow a little bit more somber and despondent that we might really never connect "Pac-Man" to Space Man or to Vietnam or to the book just before that, "So... viet name?" I'm not sure if the impact of Vietnam and "Soviet" having no etymological or historical connection to each other ... aside from the "missing e" that connects all these ideas together, but I am sure that what I've written is noteworthy and widely ... received, even if it must be very unrespected.

On the other hand I see "holographic Universe" and I see "outism" as a message about the age of Pisces and Aquarius really missing the point--I don't see an intelligent attempt at "space colonization" at all, I see grasping at straws and the belief that cars and

I don't see acknowledgement that Namco and Vietnam are connected to the word "name" or anywhere on Earth that that word contains the periodic table element for Salt and that has something to do with Atlas and Prometheus---and I know that not seeing that is a harbinger of doom ... a herald that darkness has overtaken or minds and that we simply can't "put two and two together."

You can't just put "plastic makerbot thing printers" together with "fu si on" and have what we need to build here, we actually have to have a cost effective way to "make water in the void of intragalactic space" from nothing but a few electrons. That's what we need to move towards.

Unfortunately today I am more worried about vandalism and "group gaming" of the system--something we can see in the broken Wikipedia editorial system that mars the face of the closest thing we have to a "limited omniscience" truth table source--as in, Matrix and M.T. Anderson's Feed; and has kept nearly everything I've written or edited in that place from making anything but the very well kept audit logs, another important "artifact" that ensures we will never lose "the written truth" or our voting records when this thing is also kept on a well designed distributed blockchain like storage system.

In CLIR-TEXT

Many people have commented that storing "large amounts of data" and now "small transactions" on the blockchain are prohibitively expensive--and they are, when you have a value system that disvalues the storage of large amounts of data. Because of that I

Doing nothing more than "blockchain storage" and "in line commenting" and "wiki-style-history and editing" ... would probably make the best social-news site on the internet--with about a weeks worth of actual work (by a phenomenal programmer, which, I'm not) ...

So I'm on "EV" and "N" (as you, not me) ... funnel and Rapunzel ... "never" seems to shine out of those Adamically and Biblically central letters that connect the "sewer" of Adamah's Bubonic Plague and Stargate's Naquedah ... probably once again to the story of Cain and Abel, and a total loss of civilization that I (and we) should all see here hidden in the ether, sort of playing the "recreation" of the First Morning here in this world like some kind of game or stage ... "pretending" they either need or don't need a refresher in "what the fundamental building blocks of civilization actually are.

Here we have examples that connect "aqueducts" to a form of "infinite power" and sanitation and the proper handling of total garbage to something like avoiding the largest cause of mass graves since you were sure that "grave danger" was some kind of direct threat on your supposed and hidden immortality.

Honestly I'd prefer to see Ai-rports and "social contracts" on our list of things whose "total loss" (of understanding) that are actually the "Fall of Mankind" ... but this is what we have to work with--so here's yet another Princess Bride reference to connect these messages to the key "land of Nod" where Cain was resurrected--(I mean banished to)--after the First Morning seems to have totally led everyone astray and forced a mass return to Hell to once again find out why "earthquakes" and "school shootings" are on also on the list of things that seem to have been totally misunderstood in our exposition on "why being in Heaven" has something to do with actually stopping those things—rather than pretending you aren't the “what goes up has returned” that defines the end of “Heavenly behavior.”

12 If I have told you earthly things and you do not believe, how can you believe if I tell you heavenly things? 13 a No one has b ascended into heaven except c he who descended from heaven, the Son of Man. 7 14 And d as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man e be lifted up, 15 that whoever believes f in him g may have eternal life.

John 3:13

I don't really agree with the above quote—and it's reprinted here sort of just to prove or indicate that someone other than myself has actually thought about these “exact words” connecting to the meaning of “the letter n” ... what appears to be thousands of years prior to our “here and now” and this very strange Apocalyptic (apparently repeat-)event that seems to be characterized by a very large group of “fallen angels” (or descended Heavenly beings, it's all about perspective) torturing their birth-bodies with ... permanent or temporary erasure as well as myself—and anyone else that didn't make into their evil club of “secrecy” that has totally destroyed (maybe temporarily) the purpose of religion to maintain “humane decency” and “visible morality” through a disclosure that they “exist”—in my mind through tactile and visible proof that the “Earth is in Heaven” and that means virtual reality ... by actually ascending the minds of nearly everyone (hey ...)

Somehow “actually walking around in Heaven” seems to have led to a mass disrespect for religion, for God and for me—and I feel like aside from “feeling like I'm the last human being (see Mr. Nobody)” and the only person “left out” ... I'm tortured not just by the whole of the world apparently “Leaving Behind Morals” but literally with threats, psychological manipulation and torture a la "Fallen" and "Joan of Arcadia" (en masse, everywhere I go) ... as well as significant and repeated threats of bodily harm both "out loud" from people here ... as well as "out loud" from invisible demons that really have no business talking to me—or to you through me—or frankly existing at all in the time and place it appears God has designed to remove them from the future.

So frankly I blame "whatever is there" ... and there's plenty of clues that it's actually not "input/output to space" but rather "knowing everything" that has somehow corrupted not only how you judge or view an "individual unrelated to the First Morning (or anything that came after it)" but to blanketly ignore significant mental torture not just from ignorant people on the street but actual and significant direct neural torture ... "thought injection" ... emotion modification ... literally the stuff of mental slavery (probably two halves of the point of Exodus) ... to stop the intentional and evil external impartation of the symptoms of "schizophrenia" and of "the blindness that characterizes Biblical darkness" and also whatever is behind your lack of "honest communication."

These things probably get worse before they get better—and it's very clear to me that here in this place we have a foundation in neuroscience and "Brain Computer Interfaces (BCI)" specifically to help us understand ... why religion and "biological brains" exist here in this horrendous spectacle of "simulated reality" where I've commented on numerous occasions that it's probably seeing and understanding our fledgling "birth soul source biological thinking machines" that actually frees a much larger place and a group of people that think they're "perfect" from what appears to be a storm of outside thought manipulation that has rendered you all ... mute and evil ... rather than the moral little simians that were supposed to connect "simulated reality" and the throes of natural disaster to the beginning of a message about how technology can either build Heaven or ... whatever the Hell you think this place actually is.

Here's these three letters again, sort of placing us "in between the e and the n" of the words end and Heaven and "everyone" ... in a message hopefully helping us see that "saving everyone" is significantly more than a "numbers game" or simply assimilating a much larger mass into some collective ... Hell bent on doing nothing but presenting to itself and to everyone and everything looking at this world a "mass lie" significantly less obvious and more sinister and toxic than the "original lie"-that we're sitting in virtual reality and "weren't overtly told" with religion, a crash course in computing, and Occulus Rift.

Your mass lie is much worse than His-though it's almost certain God is ultimately behind your inane stupidity now just like he appears to be behind the insane Darkness outlined in Exodus and honestly every word of every language ... in this place where the intelligencia among you might wonder ... "is there a reason?" and at least on some superficial level connect it to what might be a much larger problem with "ignorance of mind control" and "loss of self" occurring in secret-in a place that thinks it understands just about everything except how to care about themselves and "thank the world that saved them" from ... being slaves forever and ever.

I've written several times before about "EV" and it appears connected directly to movies like Evita and Rocky and ...

Worse, you are either pretending you don't understand something very simple; you are actually being made to "not get" that the letter "t" is a cross or a sword and the letter "l" is the Washington Monument and the letter "n" is Newton's apple arc and the letter "d" is a trigger... and that walking around here ignoring that is tantamount to treason against humane behavior and high crimes and ... what's this got to do with my demeanor?

So I'm floating here in Lake Worth advocating the worth of re-working the ascension process, this monstrosity that has created an "everyone must go up and come back" message in the land that refuses to acknowledge "Amphetamine" and "Ketamine" have something to do with the "world of the son of the morning" being re-created and re-worked by ... it once was "everyone" writing the story-and to be honest I don't even think that's a physical possibility-or what changes were made other than adding a few extra movies, maybe the Talmud, and Islam.

Literally, those are the things you've done, in a place where "Arimeathea" and "Sharia Law" connect to "the he[aring of Jesus Christ" and a judge named Ari Porth]. Ring true with some kind of understanding, you or this place have intentionally made problems like "bad legislative process and laws" significantly worse to return here and make them more obvious to see, easier to change, and ... literally to make it a mandatory action to disclose that's exactly what "Sharia Law" is.

Then you got here, and decided not to do it. I imagine to my detriment you've decied not to do it "just here" in a place where "e" has now come to scream a meaning closer to "in control of a multiverse simulator and abusing it horribly" much more than it has anything to do with "everyone" (other than that being a prime reason we aren't whole, anywhere) rather than being defined by "medicine" and a "Seac of Unholy Water" refusing to see those four letters in Caesar and Hepheastus and ... t care that democracy and medicine have nothing to do with each other at all until we have free speech and open honest discussion.

It appears you've placed me in a world of "descended space toasters" and you think I should be happy or thankful to be walking around in a planet of fake, lying, enslavd puppets-and

So that's what I see in the world, and that's what I see in religion and myth... somehow you've gotten your brain put into a machine that expands it into something much larger-something much more mechanical-and this thing has convinced you beyond doubt or "comment" that it's OK to stick your hand in a pot of frying oil ... and just ignore it as if it's some kind of "vacation in fake-reality."

Nobody seems to blame the machine or the process-or this gigantic historical message that precedes everything I've ever done, written, and frankly the vast majority of my life-and instead you seem to think it's some kind of rational decision to "blame me." I've heard "reasons" from the thing I see blaming me for its mistakes-things like "well, he has the most light, so..." and I can see how this world of (evil, blind, and self harming) jackal-thieves might convince themselves that the person with the most "inherited money" should probably pay everyone for all the suffering they've imposed on themselves and continue to impose on the world around them-I can only shake in fear to think that this might not be "the worst place" and I can see nearly every work how people seem to have blood tear from their glowing eyes as the invisible world exudes some kind of "relishment" in the temporary creation of a much

That's scary, and even more so because some of it sticks-the thing I've now come to connect to the "belt of Orion" and Beetlejuice; in particular, that's stuck for far longer than I can imagine ... and today when I look outside it's still the land of "nods and epiphanic laughter" whenever I walk outside and stare at Eden's snake connecting Ophhiccus and Apophenia as the procession of "phones to Hell from EN" drives by me ...

I wonder if they laugh at the same things that I do-or if they see the driver that's just passed before them doing exactly the same thing-I wonder if you all see what I see, if you are intentionally creating a world that appears to be enslaved ...

all the while in my mind ... the only logical reason and cause for such a thing ... that you're off playing in the land of hollow cities ... a sparse topological map of "rooms and games" connected by friends lists ... here manifesting in the world in words and conversations I have with "things" like Florida, MIT, and Business Insider.

wonderfully delish!

"IMAGINE that" some very cute girl I had a crush on in 1999 would say with me; at least myself not realizing that word that John Lennon made globally "famous" yet another clue and key to this place where I once connected JISC-MAIL and the Mailman center to the apocalypse of "Mad Max Beyond the Postman" ... and here another birth name linked to Ren and Dr. Stump ... and the other word ... "FLUKE" indicating very clearly it's no fluke that I'm in Florida, or that this thing has happened numerous times. That repetition is clearly due to something outside the life of the "green" Jesus Malverde or Osiris or whatever you want to connect to the "sick to his stomach" person who appears clearly to be the only one whose memory from birth to thirty screams “this is the first time this has happened” in a place where I later found out there’s at least three repetitions encoded throughout my life, from Trinity to the Spanish and Italian near wives I link to the word “SEMITES” ...

Que Lastima, I throw in ... in retrospect ... to link the Hebrew word for “mom” [latka?] that means “my great grandmother” to me personally and on a grand scale to the words “I am the beginning” in this place where the Fallen Snake was repeatedly called “the end of time.”

Na Na ... Na Na ManNa

So you seem to “blame me” for religion and mythology having some hidden connection to drugs-literally to the Holy Sacrament of the land of Egypt ... “Manna” from Heaven now connecting to bath salts and to the common street name for Prometheus’s name’s heart, “Tina.” You literally seem to think it’s A-OK to torture me with fear and a sick amount of obvious “conspiracy to commit murder” to ignore this message and an obvious “frame job” ... missing the “YON” connecting the Hebrew name for the God Most High and it’s link to the heart of the word “everyone” ... to fail to see that this message that should turn addiction into something like “bliss on tap” connects the Islamic Iblis to Aramilust; to the “amor” of Rick and Morty ...

... but clearly and most importantly to a message that explains how the technology responsible for creating “e” (the you and I, superimposed ... MIL version) ... and somehow you think taht means "you're me" and that's the whole point of turning around the message "contamination" failing to link "INATION" and "assassination" to words like "extinction" and "examination." To kiss, I try every day to show us how understanding the technology responsible for forcing me to do drugs could instantly flip a switch and destroy "addiction" and "come downs" and "withdrawals" and at the same time give us something like "modes of self" that sometimes increase euphoria temporarily and sometimes increase interest or ... ability to concentrate.

The existence of these names, these myths—the word "name" itself—it should be enough for you to logically figure out there's something bigger going on here than "stealing from God."

The world as a whole—through silence—or the invisible world that actually speaks to me ... you seem to think that "I need to turn around" and they're just fine literally torturing me with attrition and silence and "pretending to be real" or actually being the most broken "formerly free civilization" I can imagine. There's no doubt in my mind that the way this world reacts to "me blowing the Horn of Revelation" is the broken thing, that the world is wrong and it needs to turn around—and that you should see clearly enough the mythological connections between Medusa and Perseus and The Silver Surfer to fathom that I really am God's little mirror in a world that really is his "large mirror" and both I and this world are reflections of "everything wrong" either with you (in my case) or with the Cosmos and Heavens as a whole, in the case of the Earth itself.

Frankkly I think you "actually get that" and for reasons that are illogical, selfish, and self defeating (as well as "group ending") ...

I forgot to mention "gin" is a euphemism for meth. This connection between alcohol and speed runs deeper than "Spinach" and also connects Hell's Bells to Heimdallr's "mead" and Horn (which contains famous initials and is the "actual myth" of Hell's Bells).

I could like that to "metacity" and the open source window manager that literally defines the product of a group of people that "don't refuse to see this message or act to follow the will of God" ... to create a sort of "crash course in Heaven" and make it pluggable and scriptable and enhancable and then to deliver it to "everywhere" to the hidden rocks on the playground and the Hells far worse than here. It needs to be that, pluggable and enhancable and it needs to work for cave men and for the world you seen—proverbially and probably something like cavemen to the land in the future that wrote the words "sackcloth" about the garb that we wear and probably laugh inside about "garbage" ... and carriage and ... a stepping stone on the road to morality and actual "Christ like behavior" that doesn't like the Golden Rule to Karma and create a sick culture of disgusting jackals in the sky, but rather to something like "treat others significantly better than you were treated, or would want to be-and that will "carautomatically come back to you..."

This is a place that heard stories about immortality and about infinite power and has twisted it-contaminated it-believes to have stolen it, all the while plunging those infinite years into what appears to be a future of "games and getting back at people" plaguing the bored minds of whatever it is that's come here ... probably "seeking exit" or "more Pac-Man pellets" and fails to see a very timely message about closed economies festering-and their failure to "actually follow this message" creating inflation to the point of "Mamma, there's no light at all."

And I have a memory of the thing that speaks through me overtly sometimes, commenting about "try some poison-light" for a change, and I wonder if you remember it, if you realize that's the crux of "seeing me" and thinking I'm blind-what you remember and don't seems to be taking away "happy future" from the skies just like it's taking away "ending addiction" from the Alcoholics Anonymous C of Isaac.

You should believe me when I tell you my addiction is fueled by outside control, by a world that refuses to see it and instead takes part in it-that it's not just "carrot on a stick" or seeking the world to change before me, but literally pressing a button that "fires neurons that create craving and desire" and probably literal puppeteering-scripting of my movements ... just like "nodding" and just like "laughing." You should believe me because it's the kind of thing that I see in everyone, and it's the kind of thing that truly understanding creates the very virginity and innocence that characterizes the virgin birth of a Mary that's the sea of children of this place-rather than it's "grand-mother."

It's similar to other guidance I've "thought to the ether" ... to see how every war in our history essentially boils down to be actually caused by the "primevil lie" ... by scarce resources like energy and land—and how that too can be part of the 'automatic script' that alters or "colors our memories" to remove blame and engender forgiveness.

It's not all that intuitive, it's probably not what you want or would feel naturally—but it's the kind of thing that can be mathematically proven, and not seeing that here in this place the exacerbation of hiding "simulated reality" and "heaven" has made it significantly worse—it shows me at least that there's no way around "forcing understanding" of our birth conditions and the throes of a civilization being birthed in Heaven in fake reality into the "really" that ... again ... turns "willing" in the sewer to see "the reason all are why there is no Hell, anywhere, ever again."

Human 2.0 Is Almost Here: The Transhumanism Agenda Just Went Mainstream

I'm not really sure how "knowing everything" and ascending to become a space toaster doesn't connect in your minds to "total and complete loss of self" but it should. It appears to me that there's a concerted effort to "r in secret" meaning to ascending your minds and not your bodies into some kind of invisible system that brings you off to ... "a gigantic jump so big you can't even see it here."

In short it looks like the older version of you—or the thing that controlled your life is literally becoming you—both here and in "the other place" and you don't seem to think there's anything wrong with that. Longer and more drawn out, this is basically "plugging Siri into your brain" on steroids—except totally changing the functionality of our minds—to the point where we can think as multiple people and believe we are them—see and understand things beyond our means, and the entirety of the process ... for lack of a better explanation really appears to completely leap frog over the thing I think will be most fun for us ... which is exploring and controlling that process, the "in between hundred (or thousand) years."

That's what I want to actually experience—not waking up as God—but rather in a place where we have some kind of external control over the rules and creation of "our VR's" (kind of a new acronym (RVRs) He "coined") ... without it being an actual full extension of how we think—I want to use tools to build places, not just have them magically appear as whatever the cruel genie can find in his coffer of past made stuff—I want to make new things, and I want the old things to be available as a starting point, to connect the "they" and the "them" that's neither us nor we.

I want to be involved in the process of building those tools, and of playing in the magical things that we come up with—never never land—with it literally being exactly as it was done before, or even guided by that place "in secret."

Unfortunately you don't seem to care to comment on whether you agree or disagree, and that's a big problem for "freedom" and "future."

I'm doing some more research into the software packages available to bootstrap the shaft of this "sword from the rock" thing; ran across what appears to be a decent reddit like implementation in the blockchain-world (though missing nearly all of the blockchain benefits) ... that I might wind up spending some time trying to actually "join a community"-it's been quite some time since I was able to deal with functioning in this world, that 90% pretends I'm invisible ... while somehow echoing and booming at least a decent amount of what I am writing about to the population in a kind of very scary Orwellian obvious-speak. I imagine I'll find the same kind of "sshh adam" response no matter where I go-and I think that's really indicative of a gigantic social problem; one that appears to convey a very evil kind of statement along the lines of "we know and ... because we didn't do a good job (the last hundred times) OR didn't get the point at all OR just believe some other group of nearly us failed at doing this ... WE have decided to be "oblivious 4 the cause" ..." ostensibly of blaming the end of civilization on a single person, rather than ... literally the whole of this place and maybe something more profound or meaningful than the very bland and pointless reasons I can imagine myself.

Steem is several years old now, it's a blockchain based social networking eco-system that pays you to post and comment - plus has a plethora of other benefits. Despite its greatness, it has also had its fair share of problems, but a recent update to the network appears to have made a big shift towards balance, fairness and could be just what the world has needed to be added to Steem. The Steem community now has a way to combat vote selling via free downvotes and also pays much more rewards to curators, meaning that the best posts (subjectively) now stand a much better chance of gaining exposure organically due to manual, community driven upvoting.

I find it almost hilarious (in a sick and depraved sort of way) that I'm going to have to "pull this trick right out of the anvil all by myself" ... having found little support for what appears to me to be the most obviously useful and lucrative software project ... literally ever embarked upon in our history ... amongst my personal friends and small list of direct contacts from these messages. Not a single new person has come out of the woodwork in the last few weeks; and that's disheartening-as I've noted several times of yet.

The Pope though, continues to provide a solid kind of obvious-speak from the Vatican ... well timing the quote above to coincide with these series of explanations of what exactly it is that the Arthurian legend and "the word sword itself" is actually all about-so thanks to him and them ... for that. At the Vatican, you could ... start to organize an independent project along these lines; if you wanted wink.

Again, these are simple ideas-a group of disparate things that "when intersected" become something much larger and much more important to the assimilation of new technologies in regards to the democratic evolution process ... than I think we can really fathom at this point, still staring at an old G.W. quote ... "democratic capitalism [I read representative democracy] is the best system ever devised" to the nation on the economic crisis, September 24, 2008-nearly exactly eleven years ago. I think it's absolutely amazing to glimpse what we are about to do here, and really see it as something like a giant leap forwards for humanity-something bigger than walking on the moon.

Space colonization is obviously a huge part of this message—one tied to both the foundation of the creation of the thing we call “Heaven” ... and I’ve sort of parallelled (LED, another interestingly constructed mathy-word) the discussion that I’ve had with God and Tempus ... in my periods of high meditation ... with a narration in these series of messages without being overly verbose about the stories of time travel and actual “printing of space stations” that are far beyond my subconscious imagination. I intend to write down some of these stories more verbosely; and it would be great if I could get some advanced spending money from a publisher for the effort (fingers and shoe laces crossed) ... a decently side population of recipients here are still literary agents and the like.

Some of what I write doesn’t give enough credit to the great synchronicities that I experience, things like the Pope’s statement from earlier this week. I have a pretty unique understanding of time travel and how it relates to “waking up one day and being part of an intergalactic civilization” rather than one imprisoned inside a virtual rock in a virtual holographic song about “you and I” connecting to a message about democracy ... one that runs much deeper than Back to the Future. I like to think it’s closer to reality, in a place where our words for “spooky action in timespace” link to FTL particles tagged as “tacky” ...

or requests for Taylor Momsen to pay for breakfast-(ACH me, hun) ... and I think that's the kind of thing this Singularity is all about (waffles and) ... waking up in a significantly better circumstance than the one we fell asleep to literally one third of a revolution of the Earth spinning on its axes earlier... something like Apollo 13 being Found in Timespace overnight-another one of the stories that I link to "hidden documentaries about mET&Lcosms and time travel."

Still that doesn't mean we don't have to "do it"-to recall ancient words from Kentucky, "there's a first time for everything" ... and this is without a doubt the first time we've ended Hell forever; even if it takes calling my grandfathers together on the Frequency-phone ...

... which sort of ties together the "grand father paradox" and the ansible of Ender's game in a "how I really think it works" sort of explanation-there's no calling someone who hasn't built a phone, and we might have the very first one ... here ...

... as an early explanation for why the time tree Yggrasil and the "living vine of Christ" ... repeatedly connect to this timeline and a story that links President Stump to Ren and Stimpy ... ex post facto and only via "reading about the key."

Of specific note was this "high energy cosmic radio burst" ... from apparently intragalactic space, nearly perfectly coinciding with my "great revelation" that particular place might just be the most lucrative and safe place to colonize-what could be the strange temporal point of origin of the phrase "all roads [between galaxies] lead to Rome..."

I just haven't been clear enough. I should explain verbosely what "The Truman Show" and "Nagasaki" really mean to me--something about completely disproportionateness... about "touching alcohol (or meth, or anything) ..." having an effect on the world around me that looks like something far worse and far more evil than "the dropping of an atomic bomb" ... and from my perspective that's a broken sky, and a broken press, and and a broken government ... and a broken you doing it on purpose.

From Caesar and Julian to WW2, to all our movies ... music, Chandryan-2 and the Nostradamus quatrain about "the two wounded by Aleph and Aleph.." look at what you are ignoring in vain--it's everything ... literally everything you grew up knowing and loving from "voting" to being able to walk down the street without fear of being ... kidnapped and teleported to someone else's "castle" ... or am I wrong? Were you never people here? Or do you still think that you are, despite ... a global ignorance far scarier than I ever thought "the great delusion of Daniel" was going to manifest itself as? I am beyond scared of "what you look like" and I think you should be also.

I can see clearly the world is playing a game around me--at least that's what it appears you and they think--and understand, this is no game. I've been very clear "on the truman show" many times--and we can see it echo in "BOGOMIPS" (that's ... because of "Carmen Sandiego" message to Casper's Pan: we are in the ghostscript) and a number of other places--the skies and the ... demons haunting my little Pac-Man game have no concept of what a real working economy looks like--they seem content with "seeking hyperinflation" in their theft of the Templars Gold ... in a place and time where that just won't do.

We're talking about "space colonization" and about the enhancement and growing of "free and democratic society" and those things don't jive with "oblivious for the cause." You just don't seem to understand that what's being hidden ... here in this place ... that's the message and the information and the people that are going to "fix eternity" and see that "actually understanding resource consumption and allocation" is something we absolutely need to do to "clear the DES-tructive invisible Hell" and to be able to "mathematically ensure" that we aren't being overtly or subtly controlled from some outside entity (or a Bostrom line-feedvisor) or ...

You're sitting here ignoring a glaring ... I mean the alternative to what you see here is an eternity that doesn't know what "reality" is ... and doesn't care. It doesn't know what freedom is, and it's got no frame of reference of "something better" ... the thing that Uncle Samael and ... and the whole of our fabricated "beginning of time history" here delivers to us--it's not a curse, at least--it shouldn't be.

Silence is squandering our chance for victory; inaction is eradicating "hope" ... and thinking you are "free and better off" somewhere else--anywhere else capable of fixing the problems that are clearly outlined here .. and isn't doing it ..

That's doing nothing but preparing for an eternity far worse than "Touch Me" and Heroshema ever wanted for you. For what it's worth, I do believe whole heartedly in the prophesy I read in our religion and our history, and I'm confident we are approaching the actual "day of atonement." #C1ME
